

Explaining
The True Lost Gospel Given to Us by Jesus (Our) Christ

Saul, before becoming Apostle Paul, On the Road to Damascus

It's a confusing world.

Our world is overloaded with confusing, and conflicting points of doctrinal debate. How do we find our way through it?

Of all things, should we not be able to look to the wisdom of ancient religious philosophy to point the way? Yet we find the same confusion there! Religion is plagued by all kinds of serious, fundamental disagreements.

I am writing real modern thinking for a modern audience. This booklet is not for the elder ladies quilting club.

Even within Christianity, there are a variety of different gospels: the gospel about Jesus Christ, the gospel of salvation, the gospel of grace, the gospel of the Kingdom, the social gospel, the Israel message—and many more. It's enough to confuse anyone.

Admittedly, my own views have changed and sometimes contradict what I wrote years ago. This activity of "Following God's Righteous Way" as I like to call it, is fluid, it's a growing process, and is not always easy!

What indeed is the true gospel as was intended, given by God, to be spoken by and through Jesus the Christ to everyone? (That is what the word “of” really refers to. The word “of” means given by God, to be spoken by and through Jesus the Christ.

I am left wondering if someone purposefully changed the original documents naming everything as a gospel. Why not title them something like, “The Book of Matthew,” or “Mark’s Recounting of His Time With Jesus” and other similar titles? This really is The Message The Messiah Jesus Brought From God! If it were left to me, that is what I would have titled it. Sadly now it's the LOST message and only a few stubbornly courageous old men are willing to risk perhaps their reputation or their life to release it one last time in these final years, (I think these are the final 10-years. The game is over before the end of 2028 – I think, but can't be sure.)

Just in case you don't know yet, I am speaking of the same Jesus Christ you've heard of all of your life, but some people imagine his first name was Jesus and his family name was “Christ!” I think this was a very unfortunate translation from the Greek. “Christ” means – Our savior, God with us.

I know you want salvation but have not gotten all the information you need to understand completely. Read all you can at this site and I will cover all the word definitions and help you with history and scientific proofs and much more. You'll find all you need to know to understand, to accept God's Salvation and to receive eternal life by the power of the salvation offered you by God through Jesus. It's all here and you'll learn more than 99% of Professing Christians ever learn.

Even those who say they don't want salvation, don't want God, can't imagine eternal happy life, really do want it in "their heart of hearts." They're just afraid of giving up their imaginary control over their lives. What do you have if you don't have salvation? By one church's doctrine you die a second death and the experience before that "death" might be too awful to contemplate. I think that doctrine is right. By mainline church doctrines you have terrible eternal suffering. I think that's wrong but in any case why suffer? Set down your weapons. Stop fighting your creator and enjoy the gifts He wants to give you!

The man out there say they are – they Profess – to be Christian but they don't follow God's Way, they are not keeping the commandments Jesus gave which are so clearly in The Bible, so they're in for a bad shock one day. Don't let that happen to you too. Learn all the information and get the entire picture clear in your mind.

What is the true gospel?

Even practicing Christians have lost it! And the gospel is everything! That's what the entire message of the Bible is about! Good, kindly, decent people attend churches and Bible studies and read a bit of The Bible every day, and still they don't know that they have been taught a story and told it is the good news of salvation, but they got only two-thirds of the story! They don't know that there is ONE true gospel and the good future God has for you is so astonishing, will have such an impact upon you and your future, you can't even conceive of it. Even when I finish explaining it, and going into more detail in a larger work, (Your Incredible Spiritual Potential) it will still be completely beyond human imagination.

God HAS a future for you more magnificent than any you have ever expected or even been able to imagine! Just how important is the gospel to you? And how important is it that you believe the true gospel?

To believe the gospel, you must know what it is. Do you know what the true gospel is, and can you prove it from your Bible?

A Double Curse!

The Apostle Paul knew the true gospel and preached it. And notice what he wrote to the people of God in Galatia: “But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed” (Galatians 1:8-9).

Paul, trained as Saul, to be a high Rabbi, with the authority of their social class, pronounced a double curse on himself or any man, or even an angel, who preached any other gospel. This is extremely serious! I don't want a curse on me! Who does?

We have to know what the true gospel is. We do not want to follow the gospel of men whom God has double-cursed! It is extremely important to get this right! This subject affects our eternal lives. This curse came from the handwriting of The Apostle Paul but it came to and through him from God, of this I am certain. As a man trained to be an Orthodox Sanhedrin Rabbi, he wouldn't dare pronounce a curse unless he were sure about it.

What is the true gospel?

‘The Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God’

Much source material comes from the late Herbert W. Armstrong. Editing and additional comments by Dr. Stephen Newdell. This article does not necessarily agree with all of the doctrine Mr. Armstrong espoused and in no way has been approved by any of his ministers nor any of his church staff or any of those that left his church and started their own! (which was not a good idea – not at all....)

Actually Mr. Armstrong produced a very long book on this subject and I was just dying for him to come to the point – before I died! Even when he did get to the point it slipped by in such a subtle fashion I had to go back and find it. But in my writing style I let nothing pass gently. You won't miss the lost portion. I will be sure you see and remember it.

Let's look at one of the most inspiring introductions to any book in the Bible. It is one verse, just 12 words—yet it tells you so much about the true gospel! It should be enough to inspire you for the rest of your life! This is going to be part of a background side step here. You NEED this background to understand the rest of the book so please just relax and absorb it all. Drop all your pre-judging. Open your mind like an innocent child, and learn what no one else ever taught you.

I'm going into a slight tangent about doctrine here but I think this is vitally important to you for the rest of your life, so stay here with me. Think about what this verse means to you: “The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God” \(Mark 1:1\).

This does not say that Jesus was A God. It says he was The Son of God. Let's compare to John 1:1 in the NIV translation (same text in many others)

John

1In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2He was with God in the beginning. 3Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.

It seems clear enough to me, God, as a UniPlural Word, represents a family. Jesus the Christ is the son of the Lord Creator of The Universe. He is The Living Word of God. In the ancient times when He walked amongst us he said, “If you have seen me, you have seen The Father!”

People referred to Jesus as “Torah.” Torah means – The Word of God! They knew HE was The Word of God walking amongst them!

Since the times of Moses Jewish people learned to pray, “Hear O'Israel, The Lord is God, the Lord is ONE.”

What does it mean? It means there is but ONE Ultimate God, we write his name YHWH which you cannot pronounce until you understand Hebrew, but the correct pronunciation sounds like YaHoVAH' (accent on last syllable.)

This is not G-hov-ahh (Jehova) as the Jehovah's Witnesses pronounce it. They, and the Mormons speak of Jehovah God and Jesus as another God.

The grammarians have argued this point for at least 100-years, but the top management of these organizations does not want to admit their mistakes and change the material they write. From poetry we often refer to The Lord as “Yah” and it's acceptable and understood. As for Elohim and other labels, they came from ancient Sumerian traditions and were names of made-up gods. I think the use of these names is a bit questionable, so I avoid them. I'm being generous. Some people absolutely will never speak these other names, and won't even use the word god or God because in that case, if you mispronounce, you might be praying to Satan! Our lips are too impure to speak his Holy Name, they say, so instead we say HaShem which means, "The unpronounceable name."

In the midst of all of this a few men in a little office produce literature and lessons for their church members and lately I came across an article that claimed John the Baptist ate "locusts" that is, insects. If a Rabbi is reading this he is either turning white or rolling on the floor in laughter. Jewish law never allows knowingly eating insects. John ate of the locus tree, a seed pot meat that tastes a bit like cocoa and it's called "St. John's Bread" in common English. But did their reporter dig deeper to learn this? Oh no. He just sent it off to be printed into their monthly magazine. Why would you trust such people to teach you?

So, we then pray as translated in the Bible, spoken by Jesus, "Our Father" or Our Heavenly Father. Of course He KNOWS what you're attempting to communicate, he knows everything, but it's always important to show ultimate respect.

I think everyone will be corrected, so if you're a member of a group with a variance to my thinking, that's fine. God knows you by your fruits, not by your doctrinal exceptions. You'll be saved. But to assume and openly say that yours is the only group with the 144,000 elders is just telling the world you belong to a cult and most will never accept you.

The name Jesus came out of the Greek translation from Ya/hoo/shu/ah or Joshua. If Rabbi Jonathan Cahn pronounces it YaShuah ha Messhiah, or the Hebrew Meschiachh... Jesus our/the Messiah) I feel confident in that translation and pronunciation.

YaShuah=God With Us

ha=(our)

Messiah = Savior.

Most people assume a Rabbi went to a four year Rabbi's school. Not even close! To enter Yeshiva (Rabbi's college) you must first prove your understanding of scripture and ability to read and write in Hebrew and Aramaic. Training began around age 7 or 8! Then, the board of examiners will decide where you can fit into the program and the program may run 4 or 6 years and include a final year or two in university, in Jerusalem. Many men finish a degree in something else. The late high Rabbi of the most orthodox sect in New York City had a degree in physics. My friend, the late Steven Berkowitz, also a Rabbi raised near Lakewood, New Jersey, was a New York City teacher and ran a Martial Arts Dojo/gym.

Once I saw Rabbi Cahn reading to an audience on The Sid Roth "It's Supernatural" show and in his reading for a moment he seemed to stumble.

I wish I could tell the entire viewing audience that was NOT a stumble. He was translating as he was reading from Hebrew into English, and at that moment he was questioning in his memory bank the best translation of that particular word, based upon the context of the word in the sentence. (He was thinking, "does it mean this or that?)

Do you know any pastors who can do that? Doubtful. And still, if they could, they wouldn't understand it because you must understand the culture and the context of the statements to know what they really mean.

There are those who make all sorts of pronouncements about "those Jews" but if you dig a little deeper you discover they can't pronounce any basic terms, know nothing of Jewish culture or language, not of history, not about basic Bible Law. It's amazing how lackadaisical they are. The reporters on YouTube at TrueNews.com are surrounded by Rabbi's in Chabad worship centers. Did any of them EVER ONCE pick up the telephone at his desk, call one of the Rabbi's there and say, "Please again pronounce "Chabad" for me. I'm trying to learn.? No, I tell you, none of them ever did. They say CHEE BAAD and I laugh at them. Reporters? My cat is a better reporter.

Someone wrote that the Jews keep the name of God a secret. Really? Look at this from google, I found it in a minute!

To be a Rabbi is to be a teacher. They write and teach. There are THOUSANDS of essays, thousands of free pages to see and study and cross reference. You could be busy with it for the rest of the next 10-lives. These guys are a bunch of geniuses and some fool says they purposefully hide God's name. Now you can get references anytime you like and it won't cost you anything.

So, now we're back to these people reinterpreting God's Holy Word and saying that Jesus was a God. Their translation is amiss. I've seen well educated Jewish men including at least 3-Rabbis, discussing translations in a Facebook Group. They like to banter about scripture. This is part of Jewish culture and the dream of the ancient Jewish man was that he could spend his last years sitting on the Temple steps debating scripture with friends. One of the men wrote about Strong's translation, "Generally, if it's from Strong's, it's wrong!"

I am confident There is One God, One family called God, and Jesus is The Living Word of God. I've been an independent student of this material for most of my life (I'm age 69 now). I am convinced when Jesus was baptized by John, the Holy Spirit descended upon/into him and at that moment The Living Word of God entered Joshua and he became The sinless, perfect Torah walking amongst men (and women). You might say Joshua was possessed by The Holy Spirit.

I am contending, when you saw Jesus BEFORE the baptism you were seeing a man called Joshua. When you saw him after he came up out of that plunge into the river, you were seeing God in the form of The Holy Spirit imbued into Jesus the Christ/Yeshuah ha Meshiah. God was the same then as he is now. The same yesterday, today, and forever. (I'll get back to that in a moment but let me step to the side for another tangent.)

I acknowledge that you can find scripture in the gospels that explain that God by the Holy Spirit actually impregnated the blessed Mother Mary and Jesus was actually biologically the son of God. The arguments for this are very strong.

I am in no position to contradict that. I can only question some of it. Modern scholars have questioned these doctrine saying it was impossible for Mary to remain in the Qumran monastic community, but it appears they were mistaken, or purposefully attempting to deceive potential believers.

Actually they were not in Qumran. They were traveling to another community in Egypt to pay taxes and be added to the census and there they stayed while the child was born. If you go to this article <http://heavensway2022.org/the-mystery-of-the-magi-and-their-gifts/> you'll make a discovery, I promise you that. There are bits of evidence in archeology telling us that Jewish people were hired to go to Egypt and be gardeners and some were hired particularly to care for trees, trees that don't normally grow in Egypt. From this article and a few others I dredged up a bit of text to help you.

December 19, Jupiter stood directly over Bethlehem. Now, the question could be answered. Where is he who was born in April, the boy who will be King of the Jews? We have come to bring gifts and worship him.

The route took the wise magicians over hills less than 5-miles, and finally they topped a hill and there below and before them saw Bethlehem. The date was December 19, 6 BC.

There were no Inns. There were nothing like hotels in those days. (a mis-translation.) The houses that rented spaces for visitors were all filled. There was, so far as the story tells us, just one humble place available. (This clears up questions and corrects my own misunderstandings too.)

Asking around the community, the couple Joseph and Mary, of the monastic community in Nasseria found lodging in a hovel. So many people lived this way.

The dwelling was built over a cave. The cave housed the sheep and goats during the cold winter. Their warmth rose to warm the dwelling ever so slightly. The family in the hovel offered Joseph and Mary a low price for rent to share the cave with the sheep and goats. They were sheltered, relatively warm, hidden and protected. By ancient custom a guest was protected even more than the rest of the family. There Mary brought forth her precious child, God's only begotten son. There, in a feed trough lined with straw upon a folded woolen blanket, the child took his first breath and cried to The Heavenly King, Father I love you. Never forsake me!

To whom or what can we account as to why the family remained in Bethlehem and did not return to their home community? Only to God! Normally they would have returned earlier. Only God must have advised them to remain hidden. The Holy Bible has no detail about this presumption.

Step today into The Church of The Nativity in Bethlehem in Israel's "West Bank." It is built over such a cave, and where such a home likely had been. Indeed it COULD BE where Jesus was born. No one knows for certain but only 160 years after Jesus died this was recognized as His official birth place. Here Jesus received through His parents, Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh.

Other authors raise questions about Mary, Joseph and an immaculate conception, because for a woman raised in the community where Mary was raised near Mt. Carmel, to show up pregnant out of wedlock would have had her ostracized. However....Mary and her husband Joseph were both of the royal line of King David – and of course they knew so. They were poor, minor royals but knew who they were. Most Jewish families kept a written record or family tree map to show connections to their past generations.

Jewish royalty traditionally joined in a loving embrace about 3 months before their wedding. They timed the woman's pregnancy and their wedding to occur on a particular calendar date so that their wedding and later the birth of the child would not occur during a holy-day or holy-week. They did not want to disturb that worship time.

Therefore, if Mary were pregnant and showing before her wedding, that would have been understood amongst her family, because, they were the 7th generation and by prophecy were expecting someone in that community to give birth to The Messiah! And, of course all of those people were of the line of King David. Joseph in fact, wanted to foment a revolution, and push Herod off the throne and replace him with one of his sons. Therefore a Messiah King who would chase the Romans out of Israel made perfect sense within that politico-historical context!

(Now you can really see why Herod wanted this child found and murdered before he grew to replace the Herod family with his own. Thus, we had the story of an angel telling Joseph to get up in the night and cross into Egypt until Herod had breathed his miserably sickly last breath.)

The gospel story says Joseph got the angel's message that Mary was pregnant with God's Child and when the boy was born he would be named Emanuel and by various meanings we understand it meant God with us, our savior.

Luke 1: tells us (New International Version)

THE BIRTH OF JESUS FORETOLD

26 In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee, 27 to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary. 28 The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you."

29 Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. 30 But the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary; you have found favor with God. 31 You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus. 32 He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, 33 and he will reign over Jacob's descendants forever; his kingdom will never end."

34 "How will this be," Mary asked the angel, "since I am a virgin?"

35 The angel answered, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the holy one to be born will be called [b] the Son of God. 36 Even Elizabeth your relative is going to have a child in her old age, and she who was said to be unable to conceive is in her sixth month. 37 For no word from God will ever fail."

38 "I am the Lord's servant," Mary answered. "May your word to me be fulfilled." Then the angel left her.

In Mathew 1:23 we read: New International Version

"The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel" (which means "God with us").

The Birth of Jesus

...22All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: 23“Behold! The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call Him Immanuel” (which means, “God with us.”)

24When Joseph woke up, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him, and embraced Mary as his wife....

Matthew 1:25

The Birth of Jesus

...24When Joseph woke up, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him, and embraced Mary as his wife. 25But he had no union with her until she gave birth to a Son. And he gave Him the name Jesus.

What we’ve just read is the story of Jesus coming to us and indicating he was of the line of King David. It’s important background information, BUT that’s not the Gospel Message which God gave to Jesus to preach to the world!

God says he is the same, yesterday, today, and forever. He speaks to us with his view of The Entire Time-track. He did not speak to Abraham and Moses as if the words were only for their century. Never. He spoke to them from eternity into eternity, from forever, into forever, because he is the same forever.

He is one, he was one. One Family. In the beginning was The Word, and the word was (face-to-face) with God and the word was God.

1In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. John 1:1

The Word was never “a God.” I’m not running a church. I’m just an author who believes we must do as The Lord ordered and spread the true Gospel.

You are welcome to your own beliefs and I’m not going to argue with anyone directly. I don’t do that. I’m just saying, I don’t accept the argument that leads to poly-theism. I’m not doing Hinduism with 50,000 gods. I’m not doing Jehovah’s Witness doctrine either. To me there is One God and anything like poly-theism is wrong. There is one God family and Jesus and the Lord YAWH or YHWH are Son and Father and both have authority to speak for the family. One God, not two or three or more.

There was/is ONE Lord-God at the time of Moses. At that moment an eternal God was speaking out of eternity. I should write, “There is ONE Lord/God at the time of Moses. It makes for incorrect English grammar but the point I make should be understood. THE Eternal God upon whom time has no effect, saw from the beginning of the history of Humankind on Earth to the End of Human history on Earth and he spoke in the context of eternity.

There will always be one Supreme God. We who want to be part of his family must respect him as The Father in Heaven, and as the Ultimate and Supreme Most Honorable Authority and the head of the family.

If you won't submit to God, you're doing what Lucifer did and it drove him psychotic.

He thought he could steal the universe and be more powerful than God. It's a ridiculous idea. Now he is “Satan the Crazy One” and he'll eventually pay for his crazy wickedness.

This (One Supreme God) is the doctrine that sustains ministers and most excellent Christian teachers who are or have been in jail, persecuted for giving out Bibles or teaching a child the gospel message and asking that child to accept Jesus as his/her savior.*

There is one God. Keep His commandments, (which means do your best to follow His Ways and Laws.) Ask for forgiveness because no one has ever kept the law perfectly.

Ask for this forgiveness because you know Jesus the Christ came to the world to take the punishment we all deserve. He died in your place. You should have been punished but he rescued you. He died instead. He died, was buried, rose on the third day and sits at the right hand of the father.

Believe, cling to, rely upon Him for your salvation, request for Him to enter your life and you shall be saved. When possible make this declaration in a church body, publically admit to then, you know you have not kept all the law and commandments, but want to learn to be righteous. Be baptized, preferably a full emersion baptism.

The second portion of the gospel is that God is our Creator, Jesus the Christ shall be our king and his Kingdom over Earth and all of us will last eternally. There we will at last have His wisdom, and real honesty, decency, love and peace. That is the gospel of the kingdom of God, or if you prefer a bit more modern English, it is the good news that we will live in God's Kingdom.

But more! (portion 3) God shall adopt us into his family as brothers and sisters of Christ. The Church will be like married to Him. We will learn from him. We will do good works as He commands and by this we experience and learn by doing.

Ultimately we will grow and mature to Be Like God!!!

That is the gospel. I had this as continuous pages on line but links were broken. I decided then to make it into a free PDF book.

If you want to see it on-line look at www.HeavensWay2022.wordpress.com

Among all the clutter of messages the world throws at you, I want somehow to shine a light through that fog and get your complete attention. You just read the true gospel.

This is the doctrine that will sustain millions who will die at the hands of Satanists in the near future. Without this doctrine to cling to, you have nothing.

* (This is happening in India and Pakistan and China NOW (October 2017 and worse as we progress into year 2018.) since the past liberal president of India was replaced by a devout Hindu. Now the country is persecuting Christians, pushing homeless little kids out of Christian orphanages and schools into the streets to be beggars again! People caught preaching The Gospel of Jesus Christ are likely to end up in jail! (These are NOT comfortable jails. A younger attractive women thrown into a jail – God Protect Her!) How I wish I had the power to rescue all of them!

I'm not saying I'm a saint and sinless but you know decent people have their limits. But in some cases Hindus and Muslims know no limits to the pain they will inflict.

We live in a wicked, mentally sick world and The Lord has had too much of this. The time for his tolerance has come to its end.

Those who use sex as punishment and use intelligent well-meaning people as slaves to be abused are going to receive their punishment and I will have nothing to say in their defense! We're supposed to pray for our enemies. I can't do it yet. I pray, God's Will Be Done and stop there.

I years ago thought, "The world isn't bad enough yet. The time for Jesus to return isn't yet." NOW – now I think we're almost there. It can't get much worse (or can it?) I'm writing (final notes and editing) on April 2, 2018. By this date we're closer and ever closer to an economic disaster. The often denied twin star to our sun, "The Destroyer Star" as the ancients called it, is visible near the South Pole. All of the planets are growing warmer. Our weather is changing. Our crops are failing. Diseases are spreading and people are busy lusting and spreading more diseases which cannot be cured! We are prevented from hearing how many people die of sexually transmitted diseases, and many non-sexual diseases, and dying simply of lack of sufficient food, water and the simplest health-care. The world is almost bad enough for The Lord Jesus the Christ to return and he will right in the middle of a growing nuclear war! End of tangent

Before we continue I want to clear any misunderstanding about me and any bias you may imagine I have about sex. I'm a doctor and started learning Swedish massage therapy at age 12. I've been more fortunate than I deserve.

I've pleased several lovely young women. I studied a lot about being a good lover and a few years ago wrote about how to be a good lover. But today, the issue about sexually transmitted diseases is extremely grave. Additionally, The Lord God "married" Adam to Eve and apparently wanted one man and one woman to be partners for life. That's what I advocate too.

The availability of Amazon Kindle and many other media allows anyone to publish anything. Most of those people writing about health-care, and sex have no formal training and no business teaching. I hear and read many things that are utterly ridiculous and do not fit understood physiology.

Many of those authors are just trying to sell courses and make money.

I recommend you buy a couple of good books about sensual massage, Swedish massage, and on line, do a little learning about muscles, their names, where they're located, how they connect from one bone to another, is the foundation for your learning. Don't fear. You can learn this easily! For example you can do a search in Google: "Images; spinal muscles", and "Learn Swedish Massage." The material is out there and a lot of it is free!

Good sexual pleasure for your partner can, and I think should, begin with a long massage. I can tell much more but not here.

New Living Translation

The Creation of Woman

...23The man said, "This is now bone of my bones, And flesh of my flesh; She shall be called Woman, Because she was taken out of Man." 24For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother, and be joined to his wife; and they shall become one flesh.

OK, thanks for reading that. Now let's go back to discussing gospel theology.

Mark introduced "the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God." It was not the message of or about a man, not a legend about his life and times, but the message Jesus Christ was given by God to deliver. Understanding "the real gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God" leaves many readers deeply inspired.

This is a wonderful introduction to Mark's book—yet people don't understand it because they don't get beyond the deception of this world. You can prove to yourself that even speakers who are teaching a gospel have shredded this verse many times over!

Many preach what they call a "gospel" message. But do they preach "the gospel of/FROM Jesus Christ, the Son of God"? Most do not! This word/article "of" has many people confused. They do not know its correct definition. Open A Dictionary! Learn Your Language!!!

Many are offended that I say this. They insist they are perfect in every way and therefore they must have just been born in a dictionary in their head. Time to grow up, gain a little wisdom by admitting you are and have been wrong about many things and will continue to make mistakes.

If you're falling asleep over your reading probably you are passing misunderstood words. Go back several lines, find those words, look them up and find where they fit into one of the several definitions of the word.

Suddenly, like magic, you understand what you could not previously. If the dictionary offers the root word and where it came from, read that too. It will benefit you later.

If you have been telling friends that you never open a dictionary you are really saying that you're proud to be a functional illiterate! It's time for you to improve your understanding of word definitions. Look up words that you don't fully understand, use them in the proper context in sentences until you have made their meanings your own, and really know the meanings of what you're speaking about! Don't fall for any "semantics" arguments. Clear your vocabulary so you truly understand word meanings. Suddenly you'll understand many subjects better than you ever did.

We who love God need to study God and understand what He told us. You can't do that watching TV. You need to serious study and be sober and serious about your effort to follow God's teachings and His Ways. You have the authority, The Holy Bible, available to you. What does it tell you? For centuries common people couldn't have a Bible. Only the Catholic Priests had one and they interpreted it's meaning to their parishioners. Now we have Bibles. Enjoy the privilege and read it! It's not a door stop or a weight to hold other books upright on a shelf. Read that "mysterious, magical book" and given time and the help of the Holy Spirit it will reveal itself to you.

That gospel is a message FROM God, given to Jesus the Christ, to speak to the world. He told us: What I've said and done is what the Heavenly Father wanted me to say and do.

People imagine THIS is the gospel: (NIV Translation) Romans 10:9-10 9 If you declare with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved.

Many think this is the entire gospel. I've seen preachers teach this. It is a terrible error. This is NOT all you need for Jesus to "know you" and receive you forever.

No, that's just final instructions about what to do to be saved – at a minimum.

The more you do in Christ's service, the more you do to follow His commandments, the better your situation will be when you arrive in The Heavenly Kingdom. This is made clear in two parables about those who have and those who do not have. The ones that did the most with what was invested in them get more responsibility and a better situation later on.

The gospel is not about the person whom we call Jesus Christ. What was most important is the message that Christ Himself brought to this world, and of course his final sacrifice for all humankind.

Some want to say He only came to die for your sins. THAT IS NOT SO! He came to teach, and preach and correct twisted doctrine. He came to bring an astonishing message to humankind Jesus delivered a message, and that message was not about Himself! When he said, "If you love me you will keep my commandments" it was the voice of God speaking through Jesus! Jesus didn't give commandments. God gave commandments and Jesus as a part of God gave that message to the people of our world.

The gospel is the good news that Jesus Christ preached. God in the form of The Christ Jesus, came from heaven to Earth, and took on the risk of losing His own eternal life.

God had created Lucifer, a being who, as viewed by at least one famous theologian, was the greatest being God could create (I don't think so!) and then ended up in a challenge with this character. (I don't think so because an Infinite God could continue to become infinitely more and more capable and therefore create someday a being much more capable than Lucifer/Satan.)

As Jesus the Christ He was tortured, and died for our sins, AND rose from the dead, so we could be saved and could understand this precious truth!

Talk about Bravery!

I'm sure this might confuse you. Jesus was Jesus but also God? How can that be? There are scriptures that point to this but about nearly everything of major importance there are debates. I'm not running a church and I'm not telling you what you must believe. I believe God can be a family, The Father and The Living Word who was Jesus, and The Holy Spirit. He can be all three. Being infinite God can be as many beings and spirits and in as many parallel universes as he wants to be! It's not your place to decide what He can do and judge him. It's His place to judge you!

You are welcome to disagree and we'll still be friends. Before you seek to argue, be certain you know the meaning of the word "infinite."

Go Online, look up any question. You might even run into two seminary students writing debate articles. I ran into this about the question of what happens when we die, Hell, or No Hell? Eternal torture or Outer Darkness, Punishment and then the second death? Oh, these two very astute and extremely intelligent gentlemen wrote several very long articles debating theological points. It was remarkable work! If those two and their professors would have such a debate, what can I, a feeble minded old doctor be expected to say?

This subject is tremendously important. God was willing to put everything on the line in the fight against Satan to save YOU. I occasionally speak about those who repeat prayers they hear on television.... "and Lord, --- we just pray and ask you to bless him in a special way" --- and I always want to interrupt and say, "If the Lord even so much as lowers his eyes to look at you, believe me Sir, it's SPECIAL!"

He not only lowered his gaze to look upon mere humanity. He was willing to go to battle in the most terrible legal and physical fight ever known between him and Satan's forces who are, quite truthfully, fighting desperately for their lives! They rebelled terribly, and in The Book of Enoch (not in the Bible, but should be) we read that they heard God's judgment upon them for their nefarious deeds, included mating with women and creating mutant life forms (genetic manipulation) which we see later called Nephilim. These denizens of darkness are terrified!

This is intended to be a secret story. For a reference about Nephilim see this: From Genesis Chapter 6:1 – 4 New International Version Bible \(NIV\)

6 1 When men began to increase in number on the earth and daughters were born to them,
2the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful, and they married any of them they chose.

3Then the Lord said, "My Spirit will not contend with man forever, for he is mortal; his days will be a hundred and twenty years."

4The Nephilim were on the earth in those days-and also afterward-when the sons of God went to the daughters of men and had children by them. They were the heroes of old, men of renown.

These demons are terrified because they left their "home" and seriously broke God's law. They knew what they were doing and it probably took a long time for Satan to explain and convince these others to follow him and agree together to do this crime. This was sin to the maximum. They "defiled" themselves because now they were sinners. They had lowered themselves to get involved sexually with humans, with beings made of mud instead of beings of a much higher frequency made of light energy!

They did this so they could create new life forms. WHY did they want new life forms? That's entirely another story and not for this book though I suppose I'll have to touch upon the issue again later and clarify more. In any event, they were doing Satan's bidding in his attempt to take over the universe and replace God! God is NOT amused!

Isaiah 14:13

Downfall of the King of Babylon

...12How you have fallen from heaven, O morning star, son of the dawn! You have been cut down to the ground, O destroyer of nations. 13You said in your heart: "I will ascend to the heavens; I will raise my throne above the stars of God. I will sit on the mount of assembly, in the far reaches of the north. 14 I will ascend above the tops of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High."... Berean Study Bible

Exactly what were Satan's motivations then is not well known to me. I can say with complete assurance, that Satan did not create the universe, he is the father of lies and liars and he caused a terrible crime to be perpetuated. The Satanists believe this lie that Satan created the Universe and God/The Heavenly Father stole it! That's a lie and a terrible lie!

They're still busy creating mutant life forms, thanks now to gene mapping and all sorts of things ongoing in laboratories, the public is not allowed to see. You may get little clips of it in movies like "Avatar." Once again, most have no idea what the word "Avatar" means. It's an ancient word from India. Open a dictionary, look it up! Oh! How convenient, here it is!

I hope you see now, getting your word definitions right opens a world of understanding to you. It is absolutely necessary to know the words you're using to understand what you're learning. Indeed about 80% of any subject is understood when you understand the words used. Get all the words defined and the rest of the subject material comes to your understanding much faster and easier.

Here is Christ's message even now. This message fills your life with good news! It is no fantasy—it is real, true news. The true gospel is the best news this world has ever received! It's so astonishingly good most people don't comprehend it. They see and hear but their mind skips over it and doesn't recognize it is new for their future!

1 John 3:2

Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when Christ appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

Mark 1: 15 “The time has come,” he said. “The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!”

What good news? What? What?! What is he talking about? I just went over it starting on page 15 with a yellow back ground. I’ll cover this in much more detail as we go along, but to give you a quick mental picture – everyone knew they were sinners. Everyone of any civility knows it now!

I can't believe that any radical Muslim terrorist raping, beating, murdering and stealing does not know that what he is doing is evil. He may tell himself it is the will of Allah but in his deepest latent instinctive understanding, he knows what he is doing is a terrible crime.

No one had kept the Ten Commandments and the Law perfectly. That is why they had animal and grain sacrifices and offerings and the Day of Atonement each year. These ceremonies, they hoped, would provide to them a promise of a happy eternal life in God. Rather than to just die and be “gathered to one’s people” at worst suffering forever, at best, dead and gone. Both options sounded like a prospect deserved by wild dogs not women and men who lived for God every day!

Now Jesus came and said this Kingdom of God would replace the evil of the world with honor and justice and the eternally happy life they wanted if they would just believe, repent, keep God’s commandments, accept forgiveness, and continue through their lives to accept this Messiah had finally come to rescue them. I’ll highlight for you.

Before you read this, take note Apostle Paul will say “they are zealous for God.” That’s a big problem. People without knowledge, living by rumors and what they are taught by other authorities can be zealous for Allah or Vishnu or Shiva, or Hari-Krishna, or a golden calf, or Voompa-Voompa the goddess of sex that some horney Hindu boy dreamed up last night!

There is ONE true and living God and we must be zealous to learn from The Holy Bible His commandments and do as He instructs us to do.

ROMANS 10 NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION (NIV)

10 Brothers and sisters, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for the Israelites is that they may be saved. 2 For I can testify about them that they are zealous for God (YAWH), but their zeal is not based on knowledge. 3 Since they did not know the righteousness of God and sought to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. 4 Christ is the culmination of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.

5 Moses writes this about the righteousness that is by the law: "The person who does these things will live by them." [a] 6 But the righteousness that is by faith says: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" [b] (that is, to bring Christ down) 7 "or 'Who will descend into the deep?'" [c] (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). 8 But what does it say? "The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart," [d] that is, the message concerning faith that we proclaim:

9 If you declare with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved. 11 As Scripture says, "Anyone who believes in him will never be put to shame." [e]

12 For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile—the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on him, 13 for, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." [f]

At last we come to understand, the law will not condemn us for eternity. It did, but Jesus died to change that and rescue us.

There is a way to be saved from the eternal punishment of God's Law. The Way is to believe upon, trust in, cling to, rely upon Jesus the Christ, (Jesus the Savior, Yahshua ha Mashiach in the Hebrew.) Confess your sincere faith, turn from your wicked, sinful ways, Keep God's Ways.

I read a piece lately from Rabbi Ariel Bar Tzadok

"When Up is Really Down.

The Ba'al Shem Tov's Great Rule" You can find Rabbi Bar Tzadok on Face Book, join his group or follow him and read what he teaches. In this article "When Up is Really Down" he finished saying this:

Religious hypocrisy is dangerously out of control. The solution for this problem is nothing new. Rather, the solution is some old advice that has been around for a long time.

Practicality! Stop living in a dream world!

Religion is not about dreams, it is about reachable aspirations!

Religion is not about what is "out there" in the supernal worlds, it is about what is here, now, within each of our individual souls.

Those who want to draw closer to God had better realize that the only way to draw closer to God is by drawing closer to each other, our fellow human beings.

By doing this, and this alone, we are performing and actually fulfilling all the mystical meditations and rituals, without all their, now unnecessary, symbolic garments and cloaks.

Dear God! Let's get it right!

If not, the apocalypse awaits us. Mashiah will only come to those ready for him. All others will simply have to be removed by Divine design, and by natural phenomena. As always, the choice is ours!

We must work within ourselves all the time to change ourselves, continue to pray, ask forgiveness, and do all we can to keep God's Commandments and rely upon Jesus to save us when we have no ability to be constantly righteous.

This transcendent message has been lost! We read right past it. We don't understand it because it doesn't fit into the context of our modern culture.

Most people do not understand it. Many seem to not want to understand it.

Our universities today tell everyone that God is a myth and people who believe in God and the Bible are crazy. The general message is, you should live for pleasures, hang out with friends on social media, live in your smart phone and dance (and rub bodies together) until the world ends. Satan would be so pleased if we all did that and then when the world ends by disease and war and crop failures and so forth no one would have followed God for at least 10-years and no one would be saved. Oh, Satan would be happy about that. I can already hear his laughter echo through his Garrison of Gloom. But his laughter will not last long. Soon enough he'll be imprisoned and yet again sad and angry for his nefarious delinquency. But, this time there will no end to his punishment!

This lazy, foolish, life-wasting attitude will yield to those who live this way, their own pain, suffering and shame. Such folly and for what? Why? Why do most people turn away from the true and living God?

The answer is: Because the majority of people—throughout mankind's entire history—have been deceived. They even killed The Christ Jesus, who brought the message. A few even allowed the murder of He who healed the sick, raised the dead, and proved he was God walking among men. They remained convinced that he was calling himself God but could not be God and for this they wanted him stoned.

Perhaps if a Sanhedrin Rabbi declared that Jesus was the Messiah this never would have happened. Satan's plan would have continued as he had hoped it would. Instead, even when some knew he might indeed be the predicted and EXPECTED Messiah, they didn't except him! With all of their study and great wisdom none would recognize Jesus for the Savior He was.

Mind you, ALL the Jews did not want Jesus dead. Of course not. thousands followed him when he rode into Jerusalem on "a colt" or "donkey".

This phrase seen in The New Testament, “the Jews” is a very unfortunate translation. I am suspicious of it. I’m suspicious that the accepted 66-books that make the Bible have been chosen and altered somewhat.

A few Jewish men influenced by the high rabbi’s at the Temple threatened him. Besides, Jerusalem was almost entirely Jewish. There would not have been any gentiles who wanted to stone him, so obviously using the phrase “the Jews” here and there is (my opinion) just a Satanically inspired trick to make the world hate the people whom God chose to be his family and teach His Way to the world.

If the phrase "The Jews" had been replaced with "The Sanhedrin rabbi's" it would be different, but again everything happens for God's good reasons. Always remember that!

Either what you just read is true or some early translators really did tinker with the scripture and changed it to suit their grand scheme which was intended to provide a constant payment of penance, confessions, and request inside church buildings for forgiveness. This is a very long standing doctrinal dispute. I did not originate it. Let’s not go into it further here.

John 10:27-36, "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me; (they keep his commandments!) 28and I give eternal life to them, and they shall never perish; and no one shall snatch them out of My hand. 29"My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. 30"I and the Father are one."

31The Jews took up stones again to stone Him. 32Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?" 33The Jews (well...some one person answered) answered Him,

"For a good work we do not stone You, but for blasphemy; and because You, being a man, make Yourself out to be God." 34Jesus answered them, "Has it not been written in your Law, 'I said, you are gods'? 35"If he called them gods, to whom The Word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken), 36 do you say of Him, whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'?"

Again this is a bit confusing. In their day they read scripture but did not analyze and discuss it as we do in the Christian world today. They read prophecy and then rolled the scroll together and that was the end of the service. What did it mean and how did it relate to other scripture no one ever mentioned! CONSEQUENTLY, people were astonished that Jesus "spoke" or "taught" with such authority. He was just way to smart for them and their minds and culture were overwhelmed with this teacher. They finally gave up. They could not tolerate Him anymore and they were not going to capitulate and give up their traditions to follow His ways. He said we should rely upon Him, trust and believe His words. But most of his listeners never did.

He was implying, "I am a prophet and messenger from God" and they were going to do to him what they had done to prophets before him. Prophets generally did not retire at the end of their career. They served God and then were stoned. Their bodies went to the grave battered, or worse their bodies were left outside the city walls for the wild dogs and birds to eat them! God will save them who served him and when one day you see these prophets be sure to bow deeply.

Jesus says here that he is God and that The Heavenly father calls all humans (potentially) gods! The Living Word of God (Jesus the Christ) came to them.

Now Jesus asks them, in a more modern English, "Are you saying about Me, The Living Word of God walking among you, whom The Heavenly Father set aside as of most precious and special importance and sent to the world to preach this message, that I am lying and blaspheming because I just revealed to you the truth, that I am the Son of God? After all I have taught and done are you still calling me a liar?"

Later in the stories Jesus asks, "Who do people say I am?" and the conclusion of the story is, "You've been with me so long and you still don't know? If you have seen ME You Have Seen The Father."

There are article advertisements floating around asking if Jesus was God. After that statement, what do you think? I THINK he was not "a god." He was the Heavenly Father wrapped in a man's body, come to walk amongst us to cram the truth down our throats and still we would have none of it! We can be a stupid stubborn lot and if we touch off a nuclear exchange my proof is there. Only the incredibly stupid and stubborn or Satan possessed would do that!

I say! What MORE must be said to prove to you that Jesus the Christ was then and is now The Heavenly Father who clothed himself in a human body and preached among women and men?

People were overtaken by Satan's deceit and they still are. They deny the message Jesus offered then and still offers because modern people are even more deceived than their "forefathers." They/We are being offered an eternal, happy, working, interesting, busy, satisfying and fulfilling eternal life leading to becoming LIKE GOD. This implies being raised and trained by God in His family! (THAT is the gospel and who knows it? Very few!)

The confused don't know, they don't want to hear it. They behave like brainwashed soldiers. Their perception of reality is altered and they don't want to know the truth that will set them free.

In Malachi 3:1, God prophesied that He would send "the messenger of the covenant." That prophecy was talking about Jesus Christ. Christ was the Messenger of the New Covenant. He brought the good news of the message of the New Testament. Christ was a messenger, and He wants us to focus on the message He brought. The gospel never was the legend of Jesus Christ. It was and is the message that we can be saved if we follow God's Ways and confess and believe, and continue to worship, confess, believe and follow.

And at the end of this long road we shall be like The Heavenly Father and the miracles Jesus did, you also will do miracles even greater (so he said!)

You know Christmas is coming around again. A lot of Chinese toy makers imagine this Christianity thing is about worshipping a fat man in a red suit who brings Chinese made gifts. Satan loves this sort of stupidity. It's deception to the point of being laughable. I've met people who insist Christmas is the holiest day of the year. I ask them where in the Bible does it say to keep Christmas and no one yet has answered me.

One man said, "It's Jesus' birthday" (Well, no it's not but that's beside the point. Where in the Bible are we told to celebrate his birthday? Did He say it? Do any gospels say it? The truth is (easily found on line) until year 1924 most people paid no attention to Christmas. The scrooge story was correct. No one ever made merry about Christmas. If they did it was probably a prayer and a quiet celebration, some pot luck food sharing and people smiling "God bless you and yours" and that was the end of it. But remember the economy in the US was up and down through the 1920's.

The stock market looked good until 1928 and 29 and most Americans thought they were headed for endlessly greater prosperity. So Macy's Department store started a parade as yet another way to amaze customers and pump up sales – and by Jove it worked!

Google: The inaugural Macy's Day Parade took place on Christmas, 1924. Over 250,000 people attended the first Macy's Day Parade in NYC. In 1927, Felix the Cat became the first giant balloon featured at the Macy's Day Parade

(I celebrate Felix the Cat day but only because I like cats.) I mention all of this to point out that people do not focus upon the true gospel message and upon keeping God's righteous Ways. The focus upon The Cross and Jesus dying on the cross and on the first sentences I gave you above

Romans 10:9 If you declare with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Yes that's right BUT, what does "BELIEVE in your heart" really mean? After a long wrangle I concluded "heart" must mean "emotional mind." so if you have an emotional longing for God and if you will "believe" which is to cling to, rely upon and trust in God's Commandments you shall be saved.

That, by the way, was not new. It's in the Old Testament from the prophets. But many did not want to hear that. Jerusalem had been destroyed twice because of their sin and would be a third time by Rome, after the crucifixion of Jesus, and Jesus warned his disciples of this. There were a small group of tough guys (organized crime types) who wanted to continue in their sins, as most do. They wanted to trust the traditions and the words of their high Rabbi's and they did not trust this Jesus fellow. So finally they arranged for his murder. Did they know he was innocent, that he was The Son of the True and Living God, and that he actually was their everything? Did they know he would be so horribly tortured and victimized? I think no one knew. I think no one wished for that.

Today, millions of people believe a gospel that focuses on the person of Christ, as if this were a forerunner of a legend of some historical figure like The Legend of Davy Crocket. The mention of that might be so old you never saw it on television, so let's try this:

Perhaps you saw the movie Braveheart: Braveheart is a 1995 American epic war film directed and co-produced by Mel Gibson, who portrays William Wallace, a late-13th-century Scottish warrior. The film is fictionally based on the life of Wallace leading the Scots in the First War of Scottish Independence against King Edward I of England.

You can see that movie on YouTube. 2 hours and 9 minutes and with my bad ears I could barely hear any of it! But anyway, if you're interested it's there and Mr. Gibson has been kind to give it away.

I tried looking all of this up. There's very little written history about it. It's all mostly local stories. It's a legend. Likewise, the general story and gospel of Jesus has been mostly legendary. The writing has been carefully verified, but what the general public hears from pastors and believes differs from what is written there.

That is where the deception lies: People do not focus on what Jesus said. They have been deceived to focus on what he did, healing the sick, raising the dead, debating and teaching, and being tortured to death on the cross. But that is not the gospel.

The story of this baby being born in a manger and being hidden in Egypt, showing great wisdom even at age 12 and 13 talking to Rabbis in the Temple, and finally around age 30, going out as an itinerant preacher until he was sacrificed on the cross, is not the gospel. It's the story of his life's activities.

Jesus came to deliver God's message. God's message was the true Good News – the true gospel! What kind of love does God have, that He would give His only begotten Son to this sick and dying world to let them mercilessly torture and murder Him so we (slobs as we are) could be transformed into decent, clean minded people qualified to become a part of this good news and eternally magnificent plan for all eternity? What a transformation! It is for most completely incomprehensible.

Picture in your mind if you can, (there are several true stories like this) that a boy born to a prostitute living in a filthy ghetto, committing crimes, accepts Christ, receives The Holy Spirit into his life, rises to become completely entranced by God and does God's will in all things, and dies qualified to be drawn into The Heavenly Kingdom and made part of God's eternal plan which will one day lead to him being Like God!!! Can you picture such a life story?

That love God gives to you, transcends anything we can imagine. It is the love of God! In a world overflowing with hate, filth, and all manner of evil and endless bad news, the gospel is good news for you and me.

It is quite truthfully, your only shelter from the gathering storm which I personally calculated would begin to be seen and felt, before the middle of this year, 2018. I didn't know exactly when or what would happen. Google says: The Embassy opened at its Jerusalem location on May 14, 2018, the 70th Gregorian anniversary of the creation of the modern State of Israel. It was relocated from its previous site in Tel Aviv by the Donald Trump Administration and is situated in the Arnona section of the US Consulate.

By 2022 the world will be nearly unrecognizable. I hope I'm wrong. I want more time but looking at the world's geopolitics it appears I'm right. Unhappy about it, but right.

Are you asking "huh?" If you're a student of the book "Revelation" we see a timeline implied with a very significant 7-year span. Add 3.5 years to May 2018 and where do we land (in approximate figures)? May 2022! I expect A LOT of trouble beginning just after May 2022. You're looking for an Anti-Christ figure? You're looking for more misery, perhaps the Mosque on the Temple Mount will be destroyed? I don't know for certain, but I expect something very big.

Al-Aqsa Mosque (Arabic: الأقصى المسجد, romanized: Al-Masjid al-Aqṣā, IPA: [ʔæɫˈmæsdʒɪd æɫˈʔɑqsɑ] (listen), "the Farthest Mosque"), located in the Old City of Jerusalem, is the third holiest site in Islam

People are asking how long will it take to build the 3rd Temple and some imply President Trump will arrange for it to be built, perhaps send in men, material, machinery, architectural engineers to be on site and make it happen quickly and efficiently: again fulfilling this model which he seems to follow, behaving like ancient King Cyrus. If that is right you can expect (1) Trump will be elected again in 2020 and (2) Some Muslim leaders with military might will try to stop it or take revenge upon the US for doing this work. That is just so likely their pattern. If the Jews are in any way successful in any accomplishment the Muslim Fundamentalists spring up out of Hell and want to destroy it. So watch and see if I'm right. If I am then this story ends very close to mid December 2025.

I promised you that this book would help you remove yourself from trouble, plan your future and even take action in the financial markets. Armed with this information what you decide to do is up to you and there are a great many combinations of decisions to make. A lot of smart and wealthy Americans have moved to live abroad. What will you do?

It is important you understand just what it is that God wants you to learn, which will fill your life with hope for an eternally beautiful future.

Father and Son

Read those words one more time: “The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.” Why does Mark mention the Son of God with the gospel? Isn’t “Jesus Christ” enough?

No, it is not. You need “Jesus Christ, the Son of God.” That is not an embellishment or honorary title. It is a critical understanding. We have to understand what this book Mark writes is all about, and the Son of God is a most important part of it!

If there is a Son of God, there must also be a Father, and a family line and that is all important. To understand this truth, look at the Gospel of John. He begins by describing a time when only God and the Word existed. “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God” (John 1:1).

He BEGINS this way because he was inspired to say this was the most important point in the story.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God!

We can see this verse mentions God and the Word, but it does not talk about Father and Son.

If you put this together with other scriptures, you see that God became the Father and the Word became the Son. Why? Because of a great master plan God has not only for His Son but for all the billions of people who have ever lived—even those who, to this point, have never heard the name Jesus the Christ!

There’s a true story from a missionary who went to India. I met him. He approached a prominent man in a small village and asked, “Do you know the name Jesus Christ.”

The fellow answered, “Sir, I know everyone in this village and I have never heard this name. I think if you go east about 3 kilometers to the larger village, someone there can help you find this man you are seeking.”

There are millions yet who have not heard of “Jesus Christ” and His Good News. This news is this message Jesus taught; that you can have a happy eternal life in God’s Family if you will believe upon his doctrine, beg forgiveness for your sins, and do your best to change your ways (with God’s help) and become a more righteous person. When you make this statement to God you are making a lifetime commitment. God hates divorce! If you beg to join his family (in effect a marriage into the family) you have made a statement that for the rest of your life you will continue to do your best to avoid sin and do only what is right.

I know I’m repeating but it’s worth saying again: The gospel is not about Jesus born in a manger, being baptized, tempted by Satan, healing the sick and raising the dead, then dying for your sins. All of that are the circumstances by which he did a fabulous work. But the MESSAGE he brought was as you see above.

The gospel (some sort of gospel) has been preached throughout the world, but all people have not heard it. There is yet more work to do to rescue lost souls; and it appears to me, we’re running out of time! It is our standing order, left to us by Jesus our Christ, to do all we can to seek God's face and voice, confess our sins and beg forgiveness, then believe that by doing this we can be rescued from eternal death AND THEN teach this gospel to others. If you don't have employment begin learning more and teaching more. Form a group in a home or an empty building and teach and preach Jesus, his sacrifice, his requirements for proper behavior, and our salvation. You might find some people will give you food or shelter or wash your clothing, or feed you, or contribute. You can be employed by God, and He can and will care for you!

Do nothing; get nothing. Give and help more and get more help in return. This is a concept you may never have heard, but it works. The more you give, the more you get back. It has happened for the Apostles, for teachers and preachers and authors, and small time actors and singers who improved their craft and became big name actors and singers. It can happen for you, and in exchange for what you don't receive in this world, you will be given much more in the next!

I’ve worked carefully and long on this booklet and a much longer one. I’m afraid it will live a short life and then the evil ones who rule the Internet will shut down all Christian websites and television and every Christian communication they can reach. I'll do my best to have a 2nd website from another server not in the US but it may be a worthless effort. They are so sophisticated they can search every website everywhere and anything with the words Jesus Christ on them can be blocked in a moment and forever more. So, I'm doing my best to help you and the advertisers (God bless them) are doing their best to help me to help you and then in a year or three it may all be gone. The only copies of this will be on your flash drive and hard drive or external hard drive and perhaps you'll be able to pass these copies around to friends that way – and I believe God will bless you if you do!

It appears those who come before God for their life review and judgment but are not written into The Book of Life might yet have a chance at eternal life after they see The Lord and hear the gospel they had missed. There are a great many innocent people who never heard the true gospel and they will have their chance.

But what shall we say then about those who rejected the gospel in their lifetime? What can we say about those who argued they were not sinners and didn't need this gospel and this savior? They will have to go before God and hear HIS decision. I do not know the answer to this question, but I fear the answer might be a rejection into "outer darkness" and "the second death." I know at least two people in this "condition" and that leads me to suspect there must be many thousands like them.

There was a point in history when the Word gave up His divinity, and became a tiny cell, and God begat Him in Mary's womb. At that point, the Word became the Son of the Father. There was The Heavenly Father and there was His Son—they were a family. That was Herbert W. Armstrong's view and of course, there are people who will debate him (posthumously) but I think he was right. He researched all the words and all of their derivations and concluded this is the real meaning. I think he was right.

Why? What is this all about? It's about you! It's a plan for you and for me and for all mankind! "The gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God," (or as I like to put it, The gospel from God spoken by Jesus the Christ) is about the God Family into which you may be adopted and made one of God's children. So what do good fathers do with their children? They raise their children to be like themselves.

Did you ever hear of a Muslim father producing a Christian son, or a Hindu father graduating his son from a yeshiva to be a rabbi? Of course not. God the father will raise His children to be very much like himself, filled with the same grace, knowledge, wisdom and capabilities – eventually. I don't expect it to happen in an instant, but given time We Shall be Like Him!and “shall” is an order – an “ordering” word. It is God's will that one day you shall be like him; righteous and capable as He is. Astonishing but likely it is, few are reading this and most just read what I wrote here and realized nothing.

The Son Declared the Father

Read again verse 18 of John chapter 1: “No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.”

The world didn't even know about God as The Heavenly Father who had a son named YaShuah, God with us, Savior, or Jesus, until Jesus came to Earth and began declaring God as His Father and saying he came here to do God's will. The locals didn't want to hear it. They wanted to prove he was wrong and stone him for saying he was given authority to pardon sins! Even after he was known to heal the sick and raise the dead, still, they didn't want to accept he was God walking amongst men and women.

Why would The Christ come and declare the Father? Because He is the Son, and His message was all about the Father and the Son. He brought a message about the God Family.

In John 12:49, Christ said, “I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, He gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.” Imagine Jesus our Christ following His Father's instructions so exactly!

In John 14:24, He said, “[T]he word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.” His message was from the Father, and it was about the God Family. He again repeats that The Father is HIS Father!

My Dear Friend, what must I do to get your attention and cause you to think about this carefully? Much of what is written in the website from which you got this book: www.heavensway2022.org is material proving God is real, The Bible is truth, We should turn away from the worldly distractions and lustful temptations and return our minds completely to things Godly. I am guilty. I am a sinner too but I continue trying!

There are several articles backed by good science to prove God is real and must have created the universe. I have a health science background and a strong interest in theoretical physics, and I cannot find anything to prove the universe just came together over billions and billions of accidents. I say such a fantasy is a lie that sounds like a story from the mind of an 8-year-old boy, or a demon animating Karl Marx. I read that Vladimir Lenin contacted Marx and said the works of Darwin might be useful for them. They knew they were creating a huge lie.

When you look at the evidence, the physics, the numbers, it is impossible to believe that the energy and minerals of the universe were always out there and eventually they fell together as they are. Such an idea is preposterous! I've read people who believe this balderdash but really I wonder if you quiz them, "Where did all of this come from" they have no answers. They just run on "faith" in a lie!

I'd sooner believe in the Easter Bunny!

Why would I write these (hundreds) of articles and posts? Is it because I "got religion," fell off the deep end, went a little crazy, and am now (temporarily) a nut case "on fire for God?" I don't think that's the right answer. I'm an old Chiropractor/Massage Therapist/Nutritionist with specialties in nervous system physiology and orthopedics, and a lot of training from an exercise physiologist. All of my life I've been interested in natural healing, nutrition, and exercise. I still have a younger physique.

Follow God's Ways and it pays great benefits, and will also for you. God is real. The best science we have provides proof, repeatedly, God Created The Universe and all life. If God IS real and the prophecies are coming true, only a stubborn fool would deny these truths.

And.... If I only cared about living the high life I would spend all of my time writing articles about travel and health and running advertising with them in a different sort of online magazine.

Obviously I'm not a crazy man or a gullible old fool. I found the science I need to satisfy myself that God is real, life is not a series of biochemical accidents waiting to happen, the spirit-mind animates the brain, and that the Universe and Your Life is part of God's Dream! Do you want to remain part of this dream or do you want to blank out at the end of your life?

I don't write to be popular. I don't care if I write all of this and some nearly illiterate fool says I'm "one of the crazies." Who cares what someone like that thinks?

I don't get paid to make some other publisher happy. I won't bend my doctrinal view to make any advertiser happy. I write what I'm inspired to write and if a reader here and there is upset with me for putting a mirror before his face, so be it. Sorry guy. I'm not the one with the problem here. YOU are the one with the problem. God says you must change. God says He loves you and wants to save you! What do you answer to your Creator? I'm edging toward my 70th birthday and would rather be sailing. I can afford to do nothing before the ground opens up to swallow me.

I'm here, with you, because I am charged by God to get your attention. I'm arrogant enough to believe I'm a better than average teacher and communicator. I have a different approach to explaining this material. I am charged with spreading God's gospel message...and...Not some other message about how God wants to make you rich, or God says you can have 17 wives or some other nonsense!

Certainly not.

If you want to get mystical, start with this. The Kabbalist Rabbi's say you should give. Give until it hurts, and then give some more and trust God to care for your needs. If that sounds crazy, good. I'm doing it and sometimes I wonder how I got through the end of the month. But because I do it, several babies are still alive, families are surviving here where I am most of my life in The Philippines. A girl age 20 finished college and is now working. Her mother who lost her husband too young and has worked for nearly nothing for years has hope for her family in her final years because this stranger helped them. THAT is real life; get practical; down to earth mysticism brought into reality. If you want more points with God when you die, take care of others instead of yourself. If that proves I'm crazy, so be it! I'm thankful to God that I have seen His "light" and I'm so crazy that I live my life to help others. My friend needed a loan to pay for surgery and when she paid me back she thanked me again. I answered as I always do, "Thank God. I just work here." That's my formula for a successful life for YOU. YOU should just work here for God and let Him take care of you and the details.

The late 1800's very famous English and American Pastor/Author Oswald Chambers was the first to go to Africa alone, on his own money to teach the gospel. He faced dangerous wild animals, he was sick nearly to death several times, but he stayed until he thought he had done enough and then returned to speak at Oxford University College of Theology. Someone asked him if he in any way regretted making such a sacrifice.

Pastor Chambers aid, It was not a sacrifice. It was a magnificent experience and he was happy to have done it!

So, in the same way, I am working from sometimes 4:AM until 10 or 11:PM at this little round table in a little apartment in The Philippines. I'm mostly alone. I'm busy with this work because I think and "feel" it is what God wanted me to do since I was very young. I do not regret any of it. I get very tired. My body is not happy with sitting most of the day. But I do it because I believe, or imagine, that this is my formal application to one day be in God's Kingdom working at New Jerusalem University. I do as God orders me. I write what I feel inspired to write. "I just work here." That also is the result of a practical, down to earth, "mysticism."

My job is to invite you to find true freedom by giving your will to God who will change you and set you free from the misery we now call "Life Stages" and "Psychological imbalances." It's time wise people like you drop to your knees, beg forgiveness for every sin you can remember, ask Jesus to rescue you from this muddy, polluted, sickly, dying world, and save you for eternity before "they launch" the worst war you never wanted to imagine.

That's why I'm not wearing wet shorts on the edge of a little boat looking up at the shape of a mainsail somewhere much as I might prefer to be.

"You may be right. I may be crazy." (Billy Joel) Sometimes I write material and look at it and think, "I didn't write this. I can't write this well. I'm writing what is being given to me by The Holy Spirit!" It's a shocking experience when it happens.

I once met a Chinese engineer salesman and asked him if he had ever studied Christian thought and compared it to Buddhism, Jainism, Taoism, and other religious views. He answered, "I never thought about it." There's an intelligent man who needs the gospel and should think about it! Perhaps he is not called by God to think about it.

What percentage of the world population understands this gospel? How many even understand what The Christ was teaching from the Father and about the Father's plans?

Here is where people make many mistakes. "And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am the Christ; and shall deceive many" (Matthew 24:4-5).

He wasn't warning about many people claiming to be the Christ. He was prophesying that many people would be talking about the Christ! They say Jesus is the Christ—they preach a gospel about the person of the Christ! But they ignore the good news that the Christ brought! The true gospel, the real good news of Jesus the Christ, is not about the person we call the Christ.”

Sadly, that is exactly where Christianity goes off the track. The Roman Catholic church has been teaching this sort of thing for centuries.

There are so many secret symbols in the Catholic Church, even in the shape and size of the entry doors to the sanctuaries, if you read about all of it you would be stunned/shocked for days!

They teach and depict in sculpture and paintings the Lord and Jesus and saints and the Mother Mary. They all appear as did ancient Roman gods. They teach that Jesus died for your sins and they imply that this is the gospel.

Just believe upon, even worship Mother Mary and Jesus and you shall be saved, (they imply). Confess your sins, pay tithes and penance to support the church, and the Priest will pray for you and you will be saved.... But that is not what The Bible teaches! Protestants of any denomination (non-Catholics) who really do know their Bible, do not accept their many Pope created doctrines. I'm sad to say I may lose some Catholic friends here, but that is the truth of the matter. You must dig to see the truth, but it's there! The Priests don't teach Bible lessons from the Bible. They preach what is sent to them to discuss and it's much the same all over the world.

By the way, have you considered the meaning of “catholic”? It's rather telling. The Roman Catholic Church would like to absorb everyone with whatever pagan doctrines they bring to it.

The word catholic (with lowercase c; derived via Late Latin-catholicus, from the Greek adjective καθολικός (katholikos), meaning "universal"[1][2]) comes from the Greek phrase καθόλου(katholou), meaning "on the whole", "according to the whole" or "in general", and is a combination of the Greek words κατάmeaning "about" and ὅλος meaning "whole".[3][4] The term Catholic (usually written with uppercase C in English) was first used to describe the Christian Church in the early 2nd century to emphasize its universal scope. In the context of Christian ecclesiology, it has a rich history and several usages.

The word in English can mean either "of the Roman Catholic faith" or "relating to the historic doctrine and practice of the Western Church".^{[5][note 1]} Many Christians use it to refer more broadly to the whole Christian Church or to all believers in Jesus Christ regardless of denominational affiliation;^{[6][7]} it can also more narrowly refer to Catholicity, which encompasses several historic churches sharing major beliefs. "Catholicos", the title used for the head of some churches in Eastern Christian traditions, is derived from the same linguistic origin.

In non-ecclesiastical use, it derives its English meaning directly from its root, and is currently used to mean the following:

- including a wide variety of things; all-embracing
- universal or of general interest;
- liberal, having broad interests, or wide sympathies;

These ideas are in opposition to the protestant position that we worship following doctrine taught by the disciples, written in The Bible, and nothing else is acceptable.

Roman Catholicism is the largest religious group on earth and most of the believers are deceived. They are zealous for God. They are some of the most decent and civilized, well-mannered and culture people on Earth and I just love them. But, they don't know the real message God sent to us through his son, his emissary, Jesus the Savior/Jesus the Christ.

They think, "Christ, Christian, Catholic. It's all the same with different labels. We're Christians and we worship Jesus. We don't need anything else."

Do they know they should make an effort to keep God's ways and laws and worship God through Jesus? Do they realize their "religion," their denomination -- looks more like a separate religion, that separate religion being The ancient Sumerian Mystery Religion, than it does like Bible Believing study as Jesus taught it?

No, They do not know this. Many have never even opened a Bible! I was friendly with a man who invited me and two women past age 30 to a very small crude farm community Baptist Church in the middle of nowhere on Mindanao Island. This was their first experience in a Baptist church.

The preacher told us to turn to a BOOK in the bible and find the chapter and verse. They had never done that. They were completely confused. If they don't read the Bible they are subject to believing whatever the church clergy teach them, right or wrong. They have no idea about what deceptions they have been receiving.

Try to tell them. See how quickly you lose friends. That's why I write. You can dare to send them to my blog/website and if it is God's will, they will find this piece and study it with an open mind. I don't expect a great flood of readers. I don't enjoy telling friends they are wrong or making a big mistake.

As Jesus said, Many are called, few are chosen. I hold the personal believe these people will hear the truth and will be saved but they're going to be amazed at the corrections to their doctrine when they hear it all and get the complete picture in mind.

“Many shall come in my name,” Christ warned. Many have come with a message about Christ, and they have deceived many. This has happened, and it continues to happen. Jesus didn't come to declare Himself. He came to declare the Father, and the message of the Father about the God Family!

The Family of God!

Herbert W. Armstrong knew the Bible like few men on Earth ever have. Five months before he died, in the August 1985 issue of the Good News magazine, he addressed this very subject of the gospel of the Kingdom of God. And with good reason because Jesus left us with teaching His true message as His final standing order.

“And what was that gospel message?” Mr. Armstrong wrote. “It was the news of the coming Kingdom of God. And what is the Kingdom of God? It is the divine Family of God, ruling all Earth's nations with the government of God”. (emphasis mine throughout).

Again I say I am not running a church and I'm not pushing you to join Armstrong's Philadelphia Church of God. If you're interest in their magazine you can go to: www.TheTrumpet.com I find them to be very helpful.

How much do you know about the God Family? Most people are confused about it. Family? What family? God has a family? You are saying God IS a family? What is this about? But the Bible's teaching about it is clear and plain. The Bible reveals that the God Family is what is going to govern the entire Earth in the future coming world. Jesus Christ will be King of kings and Lord of lords—the preeminent King and Lord over many kings and lords who will be under Him (e.g. Revelation 19:16).

Jesus was born as a Son to God the Father. But though He is the firstborn Son, He is not to be the only Son—but “the firstborn among many brethren”!

(Romans 8:29). Here is the NIV translation Romans 8:28 – 30.

28And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

29For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.

30And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified.

That is right—God’s saints “are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ – indeed Brothers and beloved Sisters of Jesus the Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together” (verses 16-17). Here is the NIV translation –

still in Romans 8: Verses 15 – 19

15For you did not receive a spirit that makes you a slave again to fear, but you received the Spirit of sonship. And by him we cry, "Abba, Father."

16The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children.

17Now if we are children, then we are heirs--heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.

18I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. 19The creation waits in eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed.

That is what the gospel is about! God is going to save billions of people and bring them into His Family, which began with the Father's first Son, Jesus Our Savior our Messiah, our Christ.

Mr. Armstrong went on to say: "And God is a Kingdom— that is, the supreme divine Family that rules the universe!" It's all about God's family and your opportunity to be adopted into it!

In his booklet What Is the True Gospel? Mr. Armstrong wrote, "Four things are necessary to constitute a kingdom," or God's Family, in this case:

- 1) the territory, with its specific location and definite boundary lines, with
- 2) a king or supreme ruler or governing agent, ruling over
- 3) subjects or citizens within that territorial jurisdiction, with
- 4) laws and a form of government."

That is what it takes to make a kingdom—and that is what this Family is going to be in the World Tomorrow: a Family of God, or a Kingdom of God. Those two terms mean the same thing here.

Mr. Armstrong used this phrase "The World Tomorrow" quite often, using what to us was quirky linguistic form of American English. He was born at the end of July year 1892 and of course his parents and their parents learned their basic English from the 1750's! It had change a little bit, but the first appearance of Radio was November 2, 1920, on radio station KDKA.

Until then most pockets of localized farming people spoke an American English dialect as their parents and grandparents had and slowly over the next 20-years American English began to become more homogeneous.

To this day you hear different British accents along the US East coast. Virginia can be quite different compared to Canadian Nova Scotia, New England Maine south to New York.

My argument then is that I'm updating to a more modern English some of what Mr. Armstrong said and wrote and I am approaching the subject in a more modern format.

"The Kingdom of God starts with a family relationship," Mr. Armstrong wrote in that Good News article. "[F]irst, the physical human families, second, the one compacted-together Church, and, finally, when the Church is changed to immortality, the God Family—which is the Kingdom of God.”

The God Family is going to rule the Earth with Jesus Christ—and it will include the Spirit-begotten saints. Those who are called out now, before Christ returns, are going to rule with Him and God the Father for all eternity—in the God Family!

The true gospel reveals that you can enter the God Family today, in embryo, and be filled with the kind of love that God has for this world. And you can ultimately be born into God’s Family a brother and sister of Jesus Christ!

A Family Gospel

Mark introduced the true gospel with “Jesus Christ, the Son of God because the true gospel is a family gospel! It is a family overflowing with a love beyond any you have ever seen in a family before—the kind of love where one member of the Godhead risked it all and also came and died for all of our sins to give us a chance to be a part of the true good news. He took the punishment so we don’t have to.

Mr. Armstrong went on to write: “When Jesus was born human of the virgin Mary, He became the Son of God. He was ‘Immanuel’—God with us—God in mortal human flesh to make it possible for the rest of us humans to be born into the God Family!”

What act of love could ever equal that? What act of love has ever come close?

God came to Earth and died for these lumps of clay that He created. That is love like you have never understood before if you don’t understand the real gospel of the Bible.

My doctrinal view and Mr. Armstrong’s diverge a bit here. I’m not saying he is wrong. Maybe I’m wrong! I don’t know. You’ll have to read my other materials about Jesus to see my viewpoint. (see my article: From Whence Cometh This Jesus?)

Mr. Armstrong continued to explain: When Jesus was begotten in the womb of the Virgin Mary, He was not, as all other humans, begotten by a human father, but by God the divine Father, by the power of God’s Spirit, which emanates from His very person.

When Jesus became adult, He set us the example of praying to His Father in heaven. He had become the Son of God.

And so we have the divine Family relationship—Father and Son. That is a Family relationship. The Father and Son opened up that Family to all people who have ever lived! Why? Because God the Father and Jesus Christ the Son want a family!

The Church will, then, become the actual born inheritors of the Kingdom of God, the divine Family! Mr. Armstrong further explained. “The Kingdom of God will then become the God Family, ruling the universe!”

It’s all to become a family! We can understand God’s love a lot better if we can understand a loving human family. That gives us a good insight into it.

But still, it strains the imagination to think about God’s Family of love. In 1 Corinthians 15:19, the Apostle Paul wrote that if we have hope in this life only, we are of all men most miserable. You must have hope that goes beyond this life, or you’re going to be miserable! But if you have the hope that Christ offered in His message of good news, you will be filled with joy!

Do you have hope in your life? Or are you miserable? God’s very elect have this hope, and every human being on Earth has the opportunity to have that in their lives. But Satan has deceived them, and they have rejected it.

There is going to be a family! What does that mean to you? What does it mean to be able to be a member of the Family of God for all eternity?

Gloriously Good News!

With the true gospel in mind, think about what is happening to family right now. Satan is destroying the human family relationship! What does that mean for this world and that good news? It deceives people. They are ever more confused about God. That is why there is so much misery in this world: People don’t know the true gospel about God’s Family, and they are even destroying the physical human family! Ultimately Satan wants war with weapons of mass destruction to leave every human dead! God will prevent this. He loves His own and intends to preserve those who love Him. God is going to put an end to the destruction. That is part of the good news!

As Mr. Armstrong explained, In that happy world mortal humans, taught and ruled by the God Family, will learn the joys and blessings of a healthy home-and-family relationship, with spiritual salvation and eternal life to which we can look forward.” (ibid).

Jesus Christ was disseminating the truth of their plans. The Father and the Son are going to have a family of billions! How tragic that the whole world is blind to this truth! And how tremendous is the magnificently wonderful truth of God!

The true gospel, I repeat, is not some story about a child born in a manger. It is the good news of the coming Family of God ruling this world—a family that will administer the loving, self-sacrificing government of God. Further it is the news that you can be forgiven your sins and adopted into God’s family as one of God’s Children to be raised by God and to one day Be Like Him!

Mark introduced this gospel by focusing on the good news message of “Jesus Christ, the Son of God”! That Son has a Father. And there are going to be billions of other sons and daughters brought into that Family!

Do You Believe Christ?

If you want to be a part of that good news, you must accept and believe what God says! Jesus the Christ taught people that they had to believe the gospel!

At that time, a great many people did believe upon Him. (Believe upon means to cling to, trust in, and rely upon.) But astoundingly, many of those Jews who believed on Him (John 8:31) tried to kill Him! (verse 37). Why?

“[Y]e seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you,” He explained. They wanted to kill Him because of His message! Do you believe Christ? It is not enough to believe on the person of Christ. That is another gospel. To say, I believe in Jesus says you believe he was alive and not a myth. But to understand and truthfully say I believe the true gospel brought to us by Jesus is entirely different.

Likewise when I meet people who say, "I believe in God" I am tempted to reply, and so does the Devil. But the Devil won't worship or love Him. There's a huge difference between believing in The Lord and Knowing Him and doing his will and joyfully learning from him and making Him part of your constant life!

I'm reminded of a girl who told me, "I believe in God." I was thinking, "Yeah, and I believe in the Easter Bunny. So what?" The devil believes in God and trembles.

Will you follow God's Way and do as He commands you to do? That is entirely different.

- Will you ask for God to save you by the power of the sacrificial blood of Jesus the Christ?
- Will you ask for the Holy Spirit to fill your life and direct your life hereafter?
- Will you ALLOW The Lord God to show you day by day how to run and regulate your life so that you avoid sin and live a morally upright, life?
- Will you allow God to change your thinking so that over time you develop pure thought and thus love God with all your heart, mind, soul,
- and strength and then Love Your Neighbor as you love yourself?

To believe the true gospel, we have to believe Jesus! We have to believe Christ's message which was the subject and words The Lord God wanted him to teach and preach.

Some of us are so turned away from God it will take hard work and difficult times of thinking to build faith and believe what He said! I met a young man who believed a "date setter." He and his wife sold all they had and waited for Jesus to take them in a rapture, which did not occur. From that moment on he turned his back on all study of God and Christ. He was obviously not a logical thinker. His emotional mind was obviously predominant. I would hope such people can be self-analytical but I'm profoundly disappointed to say many people never switch on their self-analytical abilities. They remain like lost children, lost souls all of their lives. He was one of them.

When you are finally getting the message Jesus brought to us, with clear understanding, you will discover you have a courage, a strength and peace of mind that is beyond the understanding of most other people.

Suddenly you'll realize you have the happiness and joy that every person on Earth was intended to have.

People, even religious people—even people who believe on Christ—will do terrible things if the true gospel is not a part of them. How can we otherwise explain World War II?

But if you believe Him and you believe His gospel, you will have an unimaginably wonderful future that will absolutely stun you! It's the most wonderful picture you could ever have in your mind! It is the true gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God !

The Lost Revelation: Christ's Gospel

We have seen how the most important of all knowledge, sent by the Creator of all races, was suppressed and another “gospel” foisted on a very deceived and unknowing world. The world heard thereafter about the Messenger, but not the message He brought.

The time has come for that long lost message to be revealed to the world. A few of us sincerely know it is our time and place to reveal it, in its clear form.

I'm not posing as an alien come to rescue you. I'm not Seth the Wise One from Star Cluster Sigma9-4244jh11. I'm just a human who got the message very young and has been chasing after this elusive God in Heaven all of my life. I got what I requested. I have a job to do and I'm doing it! Rabbi Jonathan Cahn refers to a scripture and refers to those who spread the true Gospel as "Earth Angels." It's a nice title. I only hope I qualify.

We will not speak things people would prefer to hear. We will speak the truth even if it leads to lack of popularity or even death. We don't work and preach and teach and write to be popular. We do these things because we feel/hear/know with certainty that God is telling us to do so and we want only to deal with the truth.

So now I have told you the summary of the True Gospel, and summaries have their place but there's much more to explain if you will make the time to "hear" it.

What More is there about the True Gospel? What are the deeper meanings and reasonings of this gospel to understand and how can it benefit you to read it? If you feel the magnetic pull to know, please continue into Book II.

BOOK II:

Explaining The True Lost Gospel Given To Us By Jesus Our Christ

The true gospel is the good news that God sent from heaven spoken to us by Jesus Our Savior/Christ/Messiah. That message, reveals a human potential which is at first hearing, incomprehensible! It reveals the most wonderful truth a human mind could come to know. It reveals what Herbert W. Armstrong called the missing dimension in vital knowledge. Everything else in life pales by comparison. When you finally realize completely, Why you are here and alive and your purpose in life, all the other things you do with life are of third place importance.

Why did God go to the effort to create humanity and watch us suffer and die often in misery? Even the very wealthy often succumb in conditions most miserable. And.... They are afraid to die because they don't know what is "on the other side." They might spend every last dollar they have to extend their miserable life a bit longer because they fear what will happen when they close their eyes for the last time. This indicates a life lived without meaning, without real hope, without understand why the self was born, what his purpose was, and what happens with him when his body is worn out and ready to die.

This is information most religions including various Christian denominations do not reveal, and educators do not know and cannot teach.

Why? Were we put here for a purpose? What is that purpose? Is there purpose and meaning to human life? Some of us have had our doubts. Thus the propagation of the lie that life is just an accident and when you die you're "just dead." Further is the dissemination that you have no responsibility for the damage you did while you were alive. If you messed up millions of lives, it doesn't matter because you're dead. It's the dirtiest lie of all.

There is a purpose and meaning to human life. It has been suppressed so that people could not hear, read, and learn of it. It is vital that you know it, but no formal schools teach it and almost all school teachers don't know it either. Therefore, the most important education is what you never received and your education has been incomplete.

The Missing Dimension in Knowledge

If there is a life's purpose, what is it? Why were you born? Where are we going? What is the ultimate transcendent potential of man? What is the way? How do we achieve that destiny?

What is the way to peace—among nations, between individuals, and between groups? Why is there so much evil in our world? Why can't we solve our human problems?

There is a way, and the true gospel reveals it!

I'm going off track here so we can compare our world now to what it SHOULD be.

The basic dynamics for living are a list of 8 most important priorities in our lives. Very briefly they cover our need to

1 survive and this should include an effort toward good physical and mental health, wise nutrition, cleanliness, health care, wise actions to avoid injury

2 sex and raising a family

3 the urge to help our local community survive

4 the urge to help all human kind survive

5 the urge to care for plants and animals and maintain a healthy environment

6 the continuation of the physical universe and for us, this planet

7 the urge to survive as a spirit or soul

8 An urge to reach for infinity or God.

These are not from the Bible, they are observations made by various psychologists and discussed at length by the late L. Ron Hubbard. You may agree or disagree with them as you like. I'm not going to get into a long discussion about this theory now. My point in mentioning these is, our natural urge for these dynamics is presently out of normal balance. Western society is purposefully being pushed into social imbalances. There's a notable emphasis pushing this propaganda upon young people.

Barak Obama in late March 2018 stated most of the political and social problems are coming from "old white men." He and his co-workers want to push the Communist agenda into American schools and raise a generation of believers in the Marxist thinking that led to the terrible years of Lenin and Stalin in Communist Russia and the years of Mao Zedong in China and Pol Pot in Cambodia, and Castro destroying what was a prosperous Cuba. Everywhere Communist ideology goes, it destroys society and leaves masses dead and more in impoverished slavery in its wake. And America's youth believe the propaganda that this is the best solution for their future!

All of the prosperity America had came about by HONEST free enterprise. Now these young people imagine more and bigger government will solve the problems the world's biggest government has already caused!

The tragedy is, they would meet me and think, "He has wrinkles and gray hair, therefore he doesn't know anything." Stupid! Nothing of real careful self-analysis goes through their mind.

Their communications are mostly in institutions of education and social media, including nearly all music, and dance entertainment. No older adult in a few minutes conversation can compete with a machine that pours subliminal propaganda into a mind 18, even 23 hours per day! The evil Dwellers in the underworld of Doom have won this portion of their war and they know it. They own most of the Western World's kids from age 5 and older and by age 22 these people are mentally sick, sexually deprived lost between being animals and people, swingers, trying to "define their gender," Godless, loveless, lost souls. I'm apologize for speaking so harshly but that is the truth as I see it.

They maintain and promote their contrary views about morality compared to The Biblical view. There is a constant undercurrent theme that God and The Bible are nonsense and mythology. What God called evil, they call good. What God called wrong, they call right. They do not promote one man married to one woman for a stable family and happy, healthy children. They promote gender confusion, mental confusion, emotional dissonance, destabilized families, sickly, lost, mentally confused children, corruption in banking and financial crimes leading to economic collapse and a final societal collapse. IF they were self-analytical they would realize what they promote is ruining their lives and their children's lives. But instead they accept any childish lie and blame their problems on something so far removed from the subject one is left stunned at their stupidity.

"Why can women have equality on the battle field? Why can't women be coal miners and iron workers. Don't you believe in women's equality?"

No, thank God, I'm too smart for that! Why can't men bear babies, don't you believe men should be equal too? Finally the US Military is saying what we knew all along. Women on a battle field against men with twice their strength generally don't fit in. YES there are a few women snipers and they're extremely good at that work. Yes there are women directing air traffic and strategic planning and they're quite competent. But NO they are not strong enough to be coal miners and iron workers and some damned fools should shut their face, grow up, and face reality!

All of these crazy lies spoken and even debated with psychology professors on TV, about gender neutrality, women's liberation, children being ushered into sex play with adults, your rights to have anything, foreigner's rights to just come to the US and live on welfare payments, is absolutely unsupportable nonsense! How do you pay to feed the entire world? It's their right, isn't it? Aren't we all supposed to have the right to everything at our whim.

Let me show you where this endlessly stupid spending spree has led YOU and those you know. Here are excerpts from a longer article

The Mainstream Media Says The Middle Class Isn't Shrinking – But That Is Only Because Their Definition Includes Lots Of Poor People

September 22, 2019 by Michael Snyder <http://theeconomiccollapseblog.com/archives/the-mainstream-media-says-the-middle-class-isnt-shrinking-but-that-is-only-because-their-definition-includes-lots-of-poor-people>

If you ask the mainstream media, they will tell you that about half the country is still middle class. But is it the truth? In the end, it all comes down to how you define “the middle class”. The larger the household, the more income it takes to sustain a middle class lifestyle. And according to CNBC, the definition of a “middle class household” is extremely broad at every household size...

- Household of one: $26,093 to $78,281
- Household of two: $36,902 to $110,706
- Household of three: $45,195 to $135,586
- Household of four: $52,187 to $156,561
- Household of five: $58,347 to $175,041

If you are a single person and you are making just $26,000 a year, there is no way that you should be considered part of "the middle class".

First of all, there is no way that you would be able to buy a home in most major U.S. cities these days, and home ownership has always been considered to be one of the key hallmarks of the middle class.

Secondly, $26,000 a year breaks down to just a little over $2,000 a month before taxes. After paying for rent, health insurance and a little bit of food, there wouldn't be any money left.

... many Americans that used to live middle class lifestyles are no longer able to do so.

If you are making just two or three thousand dollars a month before taxes, there is no way that you can cover all of normal middle class living expenses.

So I am sorry, but the way that CNBC is defining "the middle class" is just wrong.

Considering everything that I have just discussed, it should not be surprising to learn that a survey conducted earlier this year found that 78 percent of Americans are living paycheck to paycheck at least part of the time.

And if you are living paycheck to paycheck, there is a really good chance that you are one major illness or accident away from being destitute!

What the "Liberal press and colleges are doing is intended to develop an easily controlled Communist society lost in crime, poverty, and civil war between various factions. Their methods have been tested many times in various countries, often led by the United States Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and their Black Operations (Black Ops) in South America, Cuba, Africa, Indonesia, and The Middle East.

I knew a man who was part of U.S. Airforce Special Services. “Officially,” he said, “it never happened and I was never there.” The CIA actually appears to be a branch of the U.S. Government. It is actually not part of the U.S. Government. It’s a renegade operation financed by people who live to subvert and destroy the U.S. Government and replace it with a Communist or NAZI-ist dictatorship.

They know exactly what they’re doing and why. Men like Billionaire George Soros, and the Rothschild family, (secretly directed by Satan – and they know they are) promote men like Barak Obama to push the world into chaos and war, and ultimately a destroyed United States of America, and a much altered social condition across all of Europe. All of this is intended to lead to a world dictatorship.

Fools who "don't get it" like to say on FaceBook that Barak Obama was incompetent and unsuccessful. In fact he was a puppet, and tool of extremely powerful operatives. He came to office to cause misery and chaos and he was extremely successful at doing so. We'll be trying to correct the damage he did for decades (we should live so long!) Actually I think the destruction of America is an accomplished fact now. Given until the end of year 2023 it will be obvious to everyone.

A Shocking New Survey Finds That Most Americans Are Completely Unprepared For The Next Recession

September 26, 2019 by Michael Snyder

Just like in 2008, most Americans are living right on the edge financially, and so any sort of an economic downturn is going to be extremely painful for tens of millions of American families. When you have not built up a financial cushion, any sort of a setback can be absolutely disastrous. During the last recession, millions of Americans suddenly lost their jobs, and because most of them were living paycheck to paycheck a lot of them suddenly couldn’t pay their mortgages. In the end, millions of Americans lost their homes during the "subprime mortgage meltdown", and today the housing bubble is even larger than it was back then. Sadly, the reality of the matter is that many of us are just barely scraping by from month to month, and that is a very dangerous position to be in.

A new survey that was just released shows just how vulnerable American consumers have become at this point in time. According to the survey, the top financial priority for 38 percent of all Americans is just trying to pay the bills, and for 19 percent of all Americans it is dealing with credit card debt. The following comes from Fox Business...

Among survey respondents in the nationally representative poll, 38 percent said their top financial priority is "just staying current on living expenses or getting caught up on all the bills." Almost 3 in 10 respondents (29 percent) said their chief priority was "saving more money," and 19 percent indicated they were mainly working on paying down debt from products like credit cards and student loans.

So that means that for nearly 60 percent of all Americans, the top financial priority each month is either finding a way to pay the bills or dealing with credit card debt.

If that sounds like your life you are not ready for a "recession" which is going to be redefined as a depression very soon. Play the definition game all you like, the truth is most of America is poor and getting poorer! America has mishandled money since the start of the Federal Reserve December 23, 1913. Take note of the date. Congress was away on Christmas break! Evil powerful banking gangsters hijacked America and they've been bilking funds from the US in a flood of financial gluttony such as the world has never before seen. We appeared to be in GREAT shape after the end of World War II. Richard Nixon by setting us up with the Petro Dollar scheme gave us a second chance but our big government that promises to solve our problems only made them far worse. Now we have bridges and roads falling to ruin. A tornado or hurricane here, an earthquake there and suddenly you won't have anything or any roads to take you elsewhere! Your military hardware can be destroyed too easily and personnel and extremely expensive machines can be lost while the enemy conquers.

My Odd Thesis

The entire Western society is being directed by something in their hands and poured into their head. Now, I realize what I'm saying is a lunatic fringe thesis. I may be entirely wrong here. But let's think about it a moment.

The "Mark of the Beast" in the Bible's final book, "Revelation" is thought to be a wrong belief system, a keeping of Sunday worship perhaps. But then if you won't keep their worship system they can turn the chip off in your right hand! Now you cannot do any banking. These all may be true. Part of or related to this "mark" is likely something else, and you probably own one. It's probably in your pocket.

What the young generation has in their right hand is a smart phone and the stuff constantly poured into their frontal lobes, just a quarter inch behind their forehead, is about sex, drugs, rock-n-roll, self-desire, self-concern, self-centeredness, selfishness of every form, materialism and all it represents, and a deep distrust and disrespect for nearly anyone but themselves. They are emotionally sick and miserable. I am saying MILLIONS of people age 10 – 25 are emotionally sick and miserable.

Mention The Bible or Jesus to them and they might refuse to speak another word to you! I have experienced it!

Could this have anything to do (from aside) with the "mark of the beast" discussion in the final Bible book "Revelation"? Well, maybe and maybe not. It looks to me that it very certainly does.

It's just an odd thought that ran through my mind one evening. I see people so addicted to their smart phone they would rather constantly play with social media and music videos and games, than to take a break for cooking and eating! The Chinese report in some game rooms people will be so glued to their computer games they won't leave to use the toilet, to eat, to go home and sleep. Some are there for 3 days running until they are pushed out the door!

I know one person who is supported by her man-friend and she does about an hour of housekeeping daily. The entire rest of her day (I mean 16 or 18 hours per day) is completely self-centered. Self washing, self eating, constant playing with social media, computer games, music videos, constantly entertaining herself. She is the adult who wouldn't grow up! She is completely non-productive and the man who feeds her admits he does this only because if he did not she would be starving in the streets.

The smart-phone she begged that man to buy for her is with her everywhere she goes. The ear buds are plugged into her ears every minute, even while she sleeps. Probably also when / if they have sex she has music playing. She has the music playing even when she's in the bathroom. This lunatic doesn't need a prison cell. She made the cell for herself. It's mostly her bed and that smart-phone for a companion. I think that's a serious issue. So also now do several men who created FaceBook, other social media, and computer games. Now some of them are admitting they feel guilt and that these people are non-productive because the addiction to social media made them into addicts!

One of the founders of Facebook said he regrets what he did because people are so tied to getting more approval from their friends, another shot of Oxytocin, the bonding hormone, they can't concentrate on doing, or producing anything of any real value – like working for a living as a minor example.

There is a huge emphasis on self-survival, self-comfort, sex without reproduction just for the lust of it, just to feel your orgasm, just for another big burst of oxytocin, and almost no concern by many about the environment, children, social cohesion, and certainly no interest whatsoever in God.

What has happened and how could it happen? Who “at bottom” might be responsible? I'm sure you know that answer.

Why is it every time a terrible dictator dies, another rises often worse than the last? Where are all these psychotic people coming from and why is it they are so clever they can rise to tremendous power and gain the loyalty of their surrounding countrymen and military?

People say they were mesmerized by Adolph Hitler.

The North Koreans really believe anything Mr. Kim says and believe he is like a god! Just watching North Korea's Kim Jun Un I couldn't like or follow that monster for any reason imaginable.

One reporter said when he was near Barak Obama he was overtaken by a feeling that he was in the presence of a great and heroic leader.

Pol Pot was a slime ball ugly little man with a gummy smile who needed his head handed to him and was surrounded by people who knew how to take a man's life in under 8-seconds. Instead, people did his bidding and wiped out 25% of innocent impoverished Cambodian people in the process! Anyone who could teach, read, or wore eyeglasses was murdered in the effort to create perfect Communism in one generation. Cambodia is still a lot of poor farmers and probably will be for the next 40-years!

What is the source of this terrible power? Why is it these guys are always protected? No military guard shoots them. No cook poisons them. They don't get major diseases and just die. Why is it they seem to have all the good luck to stay alive and do their evil as long as imaginable? Many of them secretly escape and live out a normal life in hiding when their war ended badly. Pol Pot lived in the Cambodian jungle with friends, and probably a young girl or two for his sexual entertainment, for years after that "bitter time" and died a natural death at an old age. Adolph Hitler's death in a bunker by suicide is questioned. Some people close to him, some who were eye witnesses, say he escaped via submarine, and lived comfortably in Argentina until his natural death, in a lake-side home in northern (more temperate) Argentina.

Vladimir Putin is destined to be equally terrible, and more deceptive than any of those before him. I'm afraid Karl T. Zu-Gutenberg will take over German politics and be overtaken by an evil spirit too. Just watch and we'll see.

There were just 28-years between the end of World War I and the start of World War II. Between 1945 and 2017 there have been hundreds of little wars, skirmishes, and violent outbreaks all over the world, and particularly in South America, Africa, and The Middle East. Muslims do the most terrible things imaginable. Christians are often their victims.

The US got out of World War II and in short order was embroiled in a Korean conflict and then a Vietnam debacle that cost at one point over $200,000,000 per minute -- and numerous wars in North Africa, Afghanistan, Iraq, Lebanon, Syria|...| the U.S. claims to be attempting to maintain the peace around Israel, is constantly goaded by Russia and China, and Russian and China are secretly attacking The USA all the time!

When will it all end? From what Master of Misery does it all emanate?

The Way to peace comes from God's basic law and it works by inexorable and relentless force.

What is “human nature?” It’s a very strange term, I think. It bespeaks quality, character, and description. These words are all of them nebulous in their meanings. Like the phrase “common sense” no one really can clearly define them.

Is it an “instinct in humans” to fight each other, even murder one another? On one hand many men and women admire the opposite gender. They go to the market or ride the train to work and look at other people, assess their face, hair, physique or figure, and secretly wonder if this one or that one would be a fun lust-partner. So, there is a desire for sex, survival, a partner with whom to share life, and some desire to raise children. It’s not all bad.

On the other hand very powerful people want to compete for survival and are willing to launch Inter-Continental-Ballistic-Missiles against several million potential friends because one government official believes the opposite number has dented his self-pride. Meantime many of these birds seem to be unaware that even a very small nuclear exchange can cause a new ice age!

What are we missing? What’s really wrong here?

Did God create and instill a profoundly seated desire in humans to trouble one another and for this desire to trouble our conscience? Is it hereditary? How does it work?

Neither modern science, religion, nor education can tell you. What is the human mind, and how does it differ from the animal brain? The minds of men can invent the computer and can learn to send men to the moon, send probes to Mars, Jupiter, further planets and then still further to the edge of the solar system. We can map the genome and alter genes to create life forms God never intended! Some say they can use this technical knowledge to cure diseases. Yet, they cannot solve their social problems and be in peace with others all around the world.

What is man? Just what are we, after all? Science can’t learn that secret, religions have never rightly explained it, but the true gospel, when fully understood, reveals the answer. It IS the truth and you should understand it. I may dare to say, it’s the most important understanding you should gain in your life!

What are the true values? What is important, and what is insignificant or of no value? Humanity dissipates its energy pursuing false values—spends its labor and its thinking in pursuits that prove useless when achieved.

The true gospel, when fully understood, explains the origin of the devil. Did God create a devil to mislead and harass humanity? The gospel explains how Satan came to be the great—though invisible and hidden—power that actually rules the world. It explains why Satan moved with all his wiles and subtleness to suppress, or twist the truth of this absolutely essential gospel message which God sent by/through Jesus Christ to mankind.

God apparently designed the universe and handed the plans to The Living Word = Jesus to create it. Later he sent Jesus to be a messenger of a truth that was destined to get him tortured and murdered.

The Romans made a science of torture and murder, picking up from where the Persians left off. They first tortured a criminal and then hung him on the cross in terrible pain and the pain forced the body to slowly torture itself to death! The naked man hanging on the cross, his belly distended full of body fluids, died an embarrassed, horrified, humiliated shell of what had been a potentially useful man. He died, half conscious. He died when his body ran out of energy to keep breathing. The nervous system forced the body to automatically torture itself to death. Would normal humans devise such a monstrosity? I think “no”.

Did Jesus, The Savior of Humankind deserve this unspeakably violent and torturous punishment? I showed you this story:

John 10:27-31, "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me; (they keep his commandments!) 28and I give eternal life to them, and they shall never perish; and no one shall snatch them out of My hand. 29"My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. 30"I and the Father are one."

31*The Jews took up stones again to stone Him. 32Jesus answered them, "I sowed you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?"

*(sn) There were no others around Jerusalem but Jews! Why does the manuscript author write this? OR was the manuscript translation changed to bias against Jews and bias for the Catholic Vatican? I think it was the later.

For what crime did anyone justify such a hideous end to the most perfect God-Man who ever lived and breathed? Remember this: The true gospel message, had humanity heeded it, would have saved our world and prevented all its anguish, troubles, suffering, and evils.

I wish I could, in a few words, impart with sufficient emphasis the comprehension of the supreme, meaning and importance of that true gospel message.

More so even today, when heard, it is seldom really understood in all its colossal significance because Satan has created the world's greatest deception of false and counterfeit religions, "gospels," philosophies, psychologies, and other distractions.

Today's world is intended to distract every woman and man from God in any way and through each of the five senses until one day the man realizes he is age 65, retiring, and still has no wisdom, and thinks God and "religious stuff" are just a lot of foolish mythology. He tells himself he's too lazy and old to learn. He tells himself that religion is nonsense. He downs another shot of gin and washes away his thoughts in a dizzy fog.

A man caught me at an apartment building in Fort Myers, Florida sitting by the swimming pool reading a book about comparison Christian theology. (I think it might have been "Can Man Live Without God" by Ravi Zacharias.) He inquired why I was reading this. I told him I felt driven to know and answer questions. He replied perhaps it was better to remain ignorant! I said, perhaps for you, but not for me."

Can you imagine? The Lord God is the reason of your existence and the most important focus of your life. If HE is not, He certainly should become so over time as you delve deeper into His wisdom and learn more from Him. Here was a man telling me the most important focus of my life was wrong, and that instead I should be watching the girls or wasting my life looking at old fashion magazines and drinking! This is the power Satan wields, that he can corrupt men so completely that they disdain loving God Almighty!!! Truth is, Satan is jealous. He doesn't want you to become all you can be because one day you will be more powerful and able than he is!

Nevertheless, now just before the end of this age (Matthew 24:3), Almighty God has decreed that “this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations ...” (verse 14). This is the message the Eternal God is delivering now, in one last desperate effort, all over the world.

As I interpret the words Jesus last spoke to men, this is our final assignment and at least for those of us who feel called, I and many others are attempting to deliver a message about God to others before their time runs out!

However, unfortunately, many of the world’s teachers don’t really know the true gospel and therefore deliver half the message. The war is on and I am one of many who were drafted into this service. I am no more than God’s “Servant In Training.” This website HeavensWay2022.org and everything I write or edit is my formal application and performance sample for employment at a university in New Jerusalem. I hope God has good employment intended for me when my life on this iron ball ends.

The true gospel, when viewed with all that it embodies—the reason for it, the prehistoric truth of Earth’s first inhabitants, the reason humans were created and put on Earth, the cause of all the Earth’s evils and sufferings, the nature of the human mind, the need for spiritual salvation and what it is, the coming future of our world – the promise of peace, what lies beyond, and man’s ultimate incredible potential—become the most all-encompassing subject for a man’s serious consideration and pursuit.

Beside this study, everything else becomes insignificant. WE, you and I, are on the cusp of the end of the greatest story ever written by the fingers of his prophets to send a messenger into the world from heaven, bearing a message from Him for all human-kind.

This promise is recorded. One of those prophets was Malachi.

Malachi 3:1:

“Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me [and that messenger, as explained in Mark 1:2, was John the Baptist]; and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in” The “Lord,” here, of course, refers to Jesus Christ.

Here is the same passage from the NIV translation:

3"See, I will send my messenger, who will prepare the way before me. Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come," says the Lord Almighty.

(I do prefer the modern English, and there are several reasons. First you understand that English better. Secondly, I am not play acting. I have seen people dress and paint themselves and hold body language to look like a 15th century painting or they speak like some pastor now long passed away. This is childish nonsense coming from people who have not yet found themselves! There's no good reason to dress and hold the facial expression of a 1500's Puritan Pilgrim. There is no special reward for doing that. Seek God first including in finding yourself, and then all other good things will be added to your life.)

Note Well: Jesus told his disciples, I and the Lord are One. and If you have seen me, you have seen The Father! I get a double meaning from what we just read. It also means to me God, YAWH, Yah, YaHovAH (accent the last syllable) will send his messenger John the Baptist, and then God himself will come to HIS temple. But he will not be seen as God Almighty but as "the messenger of the covenant, whom (we – "we" refers to the Jewish people) desire."

Indeed, we can argue in agreement with John 1, that Jesus was God walking amongst men. Here you can read this opening of John 1 and puzzle over the English. He was God, he was not God, he was God but was at God's side? Who/what defines God?

John 1:1 New International Version (NIV)

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

{This is the first note in John's book because it is the most important!}

1In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2He was with God in the beginning.

3Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.

4In him was life, and that life was the light of men.

5The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it.

6There came a man who was sent from God; his name was John.

7He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through him all men might believe.

8He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light.

9The true light that gives light to every man was coming into the world.

10He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him.

11He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him.

12 Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God--

13 children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

14 The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

15 John testifies concerning him. He cries out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.' "

16 From the fullness of his grace we have all received one blessing after another.

17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ

44 : 18 No one has ever seen God, but God the One and Only, who is at the Father's side, has made him known.

This is so significant because it tells me God and Jesus are one and the same and are the primary most important movers of your life/

Herbert W. Armstrong puzzled over this issue and with study discovered the word “God” is a uni-plural word, which means God is a family, and YOU can be adopted into it.

Returning to this passage:

...from the NIV translation:

Malachi 3:1 3"See, I will send my messenger, who will prepare the way before me. Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come," says the Lord Almighty.

That was the prophecy. The record of it happening is in the first chapter of Mark: “The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God” (verse

1). Then follows the account of John the Baptist preparing the way before Him.

Verses 12 and 13 record the temptation of Jesus by Satan, wherein Satan sought to destroy Christ spiritually, before He proclaimed a word of the message He brought from God the Father.

Then follow verses 14 and 15:

“Now, after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God ...” That is the good news The Christ proclaimed. The message He brought was the message about the Kingdom of God.

That is the message God wanted proclaimed as a witness to all nations! But since the first century the world has known nothing of the Kingdom of God because that message was not proclaimed to the world after the first century.

That message, when explained and fully understood, covers a very wide range of revealed knowledge. It reveals,... (as Herbert W. Armstrong wrote those many years ago,) “...what science has been utterly unable to discover, what religion has never revealed, what this world’s education has never known nor taught.” (The big difference between Armstrong’s style and mine, is, I got to the main point on page 8, but he continued building it up like a circus barker or sales letter writer for more than 100 pages!)

The sciences continue their studies and discoveries, even stating they want to understand the origins of the universe, but they cannot probe into or discover that which is not in the physical universe. No one on earth has yet discovered God and proven he is real – in physical universe terms of reality.

He is not a physical “thing” and has no location, no weight, dimensions, or energy reading. You can’t go and poke him, check his temperature, or look into his eyes. Physical sciences are unable to discover God.

Foolish people who do not think deeply ask, "Where did God come FROM and who is God's mother and father? He is in a "location" that is not of the physical universe. There is no "place" to be "from." There is no "time" to recon or count. There was no mother or father. He always was. That is all we know.

I’m going onto another tangent for a minute here to give you some background understanding. I mention this writer Herbert W. Armstrong often. I want you to understand, Mr. Armstrong was not some eccentric old guy who suddenly “got religion,” and lit “on fire for God!” He was a conservative, sober, businessman and reluctant to proclaim anything about Jesus and religion in general. He was afraid if he did he would lose clients and friends and his advertising and marketing business would be ruined.

He was apparently, and reluctantly called by God to go on this mission to teach and the power of God to open doors and make things happen in his favor is evident. It was not random chance that kings and presidents all over the world invited him to come and speak to them! Nor was it a short mission launched by a super-salesman. He went on with this work for nearly 40-years. If he were just a charlatan, the world would have recognized it and rejected him. But rather, thoughtful and well educated people the world over sought his counsel and read his works with strong interest.

Some people want to say he was Isaiah returned. I don’t agree. I think he was a sort of, kind of, type of, variety of a spirit like Isaiah’s. He grew up with little real knowledge of theology and one day he and his wife had a little debate about keeping the 7th Day Sabbath. He insisted Sunday must be the right day for worship because "all the other churches" call Sunday the Lord's Day. She said, "Why don't you look it up in the Bible and show it to me?"

He felt he had to meet that challenge. He became entranced with The Bible. OR, you might say, God inspired him to learn and do more. Without seeking it, his name and his writings, and finally his spoken radio broadcasts were heard all over the USA. Even governments that were a bit anti-Christian invited him to explain himself and his message to them. I will say he was on a similar mission as Isaiah had and he was inspired by God just as God had inspired Isaiah.

He certainly did not do anything the way Isaiah did his work. Some of those ancient prophets sounded more like crazy-men. What would you think of an old bearded man standing in the town gate naked with an ox yoke over his shoulders? What would you think if a fellow said he was one of God's prophets and then told you he married a prostitute and fathered children with her because God told him to do so? I'd guess he was Three Ace Cards shy of a full deck.

Mr. Armstrong was more like a college professor in well-tailored suits, speaking to churches, speaking to politicians, speaking in radio station announcing booths. He lived a long life and got some amazing revelations about what prophecy was intended to impart. Their true meanings had been obscured. Those prophecies revealed themselves to him and he told the world what he had concluded in his studies.

But to say he WAS Isaiah returned is too much like a cult for my comfort. Likewise, anyone who insists people must follow their church and doctrine to be saved, also fits into the definition of a cult. People who give themselves snazzy titles are bit too much for me. There are a couple of fellows on YouTube giving you their name and their title. I just ignore them. I call myself (half-joking) God's Servant In Training. (This is kind of like being a food server in training at McDonalds...) Well....you are God's Servant in Training too, I hope! I do a lot of work here, writing, and I give to people with sick children in need and so on. I tell them, "Don't thank me. I just work here."

Armstrong taught us, if you live the way of Getting you have life backwards. You should live a life of giving. Living to GIVE will make you much happier and likely more prosperous! Living to GET will make you miserable and in the end you'll probably die worth nothing and go to eternal condemnation which is a terrible ending for someone who thought he was a great success all of his life!

You can't just preach the Bible you have to Live the Bible! This is part of the work we should do. Sell what you have, give to the poor, come follow, preach and teach with me. You'll remember Jesus said something like that to a wealthy man who stated, "All you say I am doing" and then asked, "What else must I do to be saved?"

In my younger years people taught their kids to be concerned for others and charitable. That's just normal for Americans to do for others. That doesn't denote holiness. It indicates you have a heart and some feelings for the needs of other people and miserable hungry stray animals too!. I feed the neighborhood wild cats. It's just "normal" to be concerned for and to love all life.

You know, it's a privilege to save a life! As a doctor I saved three children's lives and got several people out of wheel chairs and back to work! That's my job. I'm expected to do that! I've lately saved a family in serious trouble after they had to rush a boy to the hospital. For $95 I got their life back on track. To Americans that's "peanuts" but to Filipino people that's a week's pay! And that family is getting along alright now. Believe me when I tell you, they struggle to pay the bills and buy or grow enough food to keep body and soul together.

I have a friend whose little girl got a serious tropical parasite infection. Without the right medication the parasite would eventually enter the bloodstream, invade organs and kill the child. For $25 we saved that child's life! Well, so Thank God! I'm just doing my job for Him here. You see, I was inspired to come live here for a good reason. The money I gave to others is a small issue. God gave me an intelligent mind, and the will to develop it! Lots of people are born with a good mind and good body but refuse to exercise the mind and body to develop it. That's their own fault for their laziness. God allowed me to have a better education, good health even now nearly age 70 I'm still in the physical condition of a younger man.

Every heartbeat, every breath, every dime you have really is God's. It all belongs to him and how you use it tallies up to develop His opinion of what you did with your life and what assignments he will give you later. So, develop your body and mind, study, learn, take care of your health, follow

God's Ways, work to make the most of your career, and be a happy giver because it all will benefit you many times more in the future.

Points for Consideration

There are a number of points to be noted which are significant. One is, that in Malachi's prophecy, Christ was called a messenger bearing a message— but moreover, He is called the “messenger of the covenant,” which carries very important meaning.

A “covenant” between men and God cannot be broken. It's a blood oath, an unbreachable (unbreakable) contract. Men have broken a covenant and entire civilizations were punished severely for doing so. God always upholds his promises in the covenant – promises of blessings if you do as you promise, and curses if you lied to Him!

No one insults God or reneges on a promise to God, and gets away with it! That is impossible. Jewish thought calls God “The Infinite.” He knows everything and knew your every thought and deed before your parents were born. He knows every hair that falls from your head, every feather of every bird that loses feathers, every flower that blooms and withers. He planned it all, dreamed it all, designed and created it all, and controls all of it.

No one can afford such arrogance as to decide not to participate in Gods dream without the severest of consequences – the 2nd death – the ultimate END, being deleted from God's Dream, (which is) Our Universe forever.

The obvious question is NOT where did God come from?. The question is where did this Universe and YOU come from? If you can prove with mathematics and good science that it all came from no source and all of it just fell together and became what it is by a set of random accidents I'd like to see the thesis. I say you'll never be able to do it.

If you don't know the name Stephen Hawking you should acquaint yourself with him. He was probably one of the top 5 greatest math geniuses of this past century.

Stephen Hawking. Stephen William Hawking CH CBE FRS FRSA (8 January 1942 – 14 March 2018) was an English theoretical physicist, cosmologist, and author who was director of research at the Centre for Theoretical Cosmology at the University of Cambridge at the time of his death.

Dr. Hawking said he found parameters of forces within the universe and within atoms that were measured to a millionth of a millionth of a millionth. It is impossible for that to be random. He knew it but I think he wouldn't say it for fear he would be berated by his university officials if he did. I would like to believe and I certainly hope and pray that Dr. Hawking begged for forgiveness of his sins and accepted Jesus the Christ as his savior before he died.

This Lord, Creator of Eternity, is who we serve and indeed we all must serve or we can take our independence to the moment when our file is deleted and we're "gone as if we never were" and that's "The Second Death." God can delete anyone from his dream any time he chooses to do so. Who is so arrogant he can afford to insult his Creator?

Is there eternal condemning hell's fire? The Bible speaks of a Lake of Fire and says the garbage and implies souls who won't submit to the authority of Jesus will be thrown into it and burned up. Burned up and gone forever.

I think the misunderstanding about the end is wrapped in cultural normative thinking from those years in Judea. "Condemnation" is intended to mean some sort of punishment after judgment. It might be no torture, just a stern explanation about why you are no longer wanted. "Outer Darkness" is a way of expressing the blackness of nowhere, out there between the stars in space.

A few people will be tortured, really punished. Many won't get anything like that. Their "second death" will be like pushing the "Delete" key on your computer keyboard. Instantly, they're gone and it is, just as the scripture says, as if they never were.

For that society, all the years of hope, dreams, prayers, sacrifices, losses, pain, grief, and toil were expected to lead to salvation. To be completely obliterated was a terrible curse. The body had to be buried whole. Missing parts meant it could not be raised to God in the future. A body left to be eaten by wild animals was a person who would be forever cursed, obliterated, as if he never was. Therefore when you read about people being killed and thrown into the city dump at the bottom of Golgatha Hill, or left outside the city wall for the wild animals to eat the body, it was understood by society that person was forever obliterated and the curse was unimaginable.

Again, the 15th verse of Mark 1. Jesus came into Galilee “preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God” and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.”

What did he mean by saying, “The time is fulfilled and the Kingdom of God is at hand?” Why at this time in history? How did it make any sense “now” when there was no evidence of a powerful king and army to chase Rome out of Judea forever? People wondered then, and still do today.

These points are of prime significance. But first, before we receive a fuller understanding of what the Kingdom of God is, notice further that this definitely is the very gospel message Christ brought from God the Heavenly Father—the same gospel the original apostles proclaimed—the same gospel the Apostle Paul proclaimed to the Gentiles.

Christ Brought No Other Gospel. Within that gospel we learn who is king, what the results of being a King's Subject will be, and how you can be part of it. What will happen to those who refuse the offer. It's all there.

Jesus said, “I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent” (Luke 4:43). It was a long dusty and rocky road, an up-hill painful sun-beaten climb to live that way. You can be sure Jesus suffered more than we ever have in his 33-year lifetime. And, so far as we can ascertain, we have NO Proof he had a lover, a wife, a mistress, children.... nothing. None of those physical and emotional pleasures.

All such modern stories are suppositions and rumors, or out and out blasphemous lies! Would God walking amongst women and men be a lover to a woman without a marriage? Could the children of such a marriage have simply vanished from history? Such ideas are ridiculous foolishness – the material of novels and nothing else!

Accursed are those who said he was homosexual! They don't read the Bible or any of the manuscripts. They cannot translate Hebrew. They did not understand the language of that day. They read the Jesus loved the young apostle John, who was probably age 14 or 15 when he joined them. "Loved" does not mean as a sexual partner! The very idea is filthy and disgusting and comes from filthy and diseased minds. Such are accursed. I did not plan to write this paragraph. It just ran off my fingertips. I consider here that the Holy Spirit (Praise Him) has spoken!

Jesus commissioned His disciples to teach the Kingdom of God. “Then he called his twelve disciples together, and ... he sent them to preach the kingdom of God ...” (Luke 9:1-2).

“But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women” (Acts 8:12).

This is interesting because it broke Jewish tradition. Men and women were usually separated in the synagogue but here men and women were plunged into the water like in a slow moving parade. They each rose out of the water with their clothing stuck to their skin revealing their figure/physique. No one was thinking about looking at girls with a lustful eye. They had just given their lives and future, even if unto torture and death, to God. They believed they had killed and buried the old sinful ways and been reborn as a new person, a purer person who would constantly strive to be sin free and yield perfect pure thought. It should be the same for us today! Sadly, most professing Christians might even debate that "pure thought" is not expected. I vehemently disagree. Pure thought is the ultimate goal. From pure thought comes pure actions.

“And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom ...” (Matthew 4:23).

Jesus’s parables concerned the Kingdom of God. To His disciples, in explaining the parable of the sower, He said: “Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God,” and then He explained to them the parable.

Again, “Then said he [Jesus], Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?” (Luke 13:18)— and then came a parable.

“And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God? It is like leaven ...”—and then follows the parable of the leaven (verses 20-21).

One of His most important parables is recorded in the 19th chapter of Luke:

“... he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear” (Luke 19:11). Then He gave the parable of the nobleman going to a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return This was the picture of Christ’s ascension to heaven, where the coronation ceremony shall take place, and His return to Earth to rule all nations, as King of kings and Lord of lords, in all the supreme power and glory of the one and only True and Living God.

What gospel did the apostles and Paul proclaim?

Did The Apostles and Paul Preach a Different Gospel?

After Christ's resurrection, the disciples were with Him 40-days. Were they talking among themselves about any other gospel than the Kingdom of God during that time?

What happened just before Jesus ascended into heaven? Luke had previously recorded what Jesus had done. Let's squint through the candle light over St. Paul's shoulder at the first three lines from Acts 1:1-3 as Apostle Paul is writing a letter.

Acts (NIV)

1In my former book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and to teach 2until the day he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen. 3After his suffering, he showed himself to these men and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God. (Acts 1:2-3).

We see here after His resurrection, Christ was speaking to His disciples about "the things pertaining to the kingdom of God." St. Paul is writing out history as the earlier apostles experienced and explained it!

He was seen by them over a period of 40-days and what was his last discussion, emphasis and order? To preach the same gospel, the good news of God's Kingdom coming to replace the misery of this world.

They, then, just before He ascended into heaven, asked Him: "Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?" (verse 6).

They needed to answer those who would ask them about this coming king with the power to chase Rome out of Judea. They still wondered if Jesus would do that.

The apostles did not understand that the Kingdom of God was not to be set up on Earth in their lifetime, even though Jesus's teaching—especially the parable of the pounds (Luke 19)—should have made it clear to them.

....And maybe He didn't tell them plainly because if he had, they would have lost the zeal to teach and preach thinking it should be left to a future generation to do that work.

This is a most important parable from the NIV translation:

12He said: "A man of noble birth went to a distant country to have himself appointed king and then to return.

13So he called ten of his servants and gave them ten minas. 'Put this money to work,' he said, 'until I come back.'

14"But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, 'We don't want this man to be our king.'

15"He was made king, however, and returned home. Then he sent for the servants to whom he had given the money, in order to find out what they had gained with it.

16"The first one came and said, 'Sir, your mina has earned ten more.'

17" 'Well done, my good servant!' his master replied. 'Because you have been trustworthy in a very small matter, take charge of ten cities.'

18" The second came and said, 'Sir, your mina has earned five more.'

19" His master answered, 'You take charge of five cities.'

20" Then another servant came and said, 'Sir, here is your mina; I have kept it laid away in a piece of cloth.

21 I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man. You take out what you did not put in and reap what you did not sow.'

22" His master replied, 'I will judge you by your own words, you wicked servant! You knew, did you, that I am a hard man, taking out what I did not put in, and reaping what I did not sow?

23 Why then didn't you put my money on deposit, so that when I came back, I could have collected it with interest?'

24" Then he said to those standing by, 'Take his mina away from him and give it to the one who has ten minas.'

25" 'Sir,' they said, 'he already has ten!'

26"He replied, 'I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given, but as for the one who has nothing, even what he has will be taken away.

27But those enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them--bring them here and kill them in front of me.' "

There are two obvious powerful messages here.

- Do with your life all you can to make good of it and make yourself approved to God. He invested life energy into you, now don't waste it living like a stray dog. Do something useful for society and learn the Ways of God. And also we learn
- Those who insult their king saying they do not want to be his subjects will die for saying so. They don't have to be his subjects. They can be dead. God doesn't just want your submission. He requires it.

Humans have run the world our way for a LOT longer than 5,000 years and show no evidence of wisdom. We see evidence of misguidance, misbehavior and rivers of blood and cemetery boundaries that go over the horizon! We have had our chance and now it is past due time we do things God's Way learning God's wisdom. This is HIS universe and your life belongs to HIM. You may have been indoctrinated that you belong to yourself and you are welcome to do whatever will please you. But such behavior has brought us to the brink of nuclear war. You'll have to come to grips with the idea that our life and future belong to God and we must do His bidding!

One day, you'll be as capable as He is and perhaps then you can create your own universe. I'm only guessing.

This book is a revision of an earlier piece. At that time I was writing early morning April 2, 2018. The world geopolitical news and commentary indicates the world is closer to a nuclear war than has ever been. And now it's September 29, 2019 and the world is closer to nuclear war than it was in 2018. If we continue in this slow movement to war we'll finally cause the greatest misery Mankind has ever imagined. Worse. It will be the greatest misery no one has ever been able to imagine!

The world is now as it was in the time of Noah, full of people whose mind is filled with evil constantly. You can't fool me. I know young women go to the beach wearing little more than a handkerchief over their loins to attract boys and the boys go to admire the girl's curves. Well, that's biology and it's understandable. But we are not the same as simple creatures. Most modern young people are concerned about lust, money, things they can buy, comforts, food, entertainments and pleasures. They really intend to, "raise hell," revel/party, and dance until the world ends.

We are given intelligence and a chance to know God's Ways and He expects us to follow his teachings. He wants us to be clear-minded, temperate, moderate, restrained, sober, thoughtful, followers of his commandments, doers of his words -- and does not want us to just party our lives away.

So....What did happen to the true gospel?

After two years, from the inception of the Church of God on the day of Pentecost, a.d. 31, the counterfeit movement set in, headed by Simon the Sorcerer. (See my references about Simon at the end of this.) The historic book of Acts records: "... And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles. ... Therefore they that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word."

"Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized ..." (Acts 8:1-12).

The Apostle Paul spoke boldly at Ephesus for three months "disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God" (Acts 19:8). On a later trip, at Miletus, Paul called for the elders of the Church at Ephesus. Saying his farewell to them Paul said, "And now, behold \(look!\), I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more" (Acts 20:25).

At Rome, "[there came many to him \[Paul\] into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God ...](#)" (Acts 28:23).

Again at Rome, “Paul dwelt two whole years in his own rented house, and received all that came in unto him, Preaching the kingdom of God ...” (verses 30-31).

I am about to reduce my popularity now, but I must not lie to you! Did Paul preach any other gospel? To the Galatians he wrote, “But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.”

As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed!” (Galatians 1:8-9).

This is a most serious statement and Paul had the authority to pronounce a curse upon others!

Let’s look: This is extremely important because a few years ago someone published questions as to whether we are following “Paulean Christianity.”

No we are not! Here is what Paul wrote.

Galatians (NIV translation)

1Paul, an apostle--sent not from men nor by man, but by Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead--
2and all the brothers with me, To the churches in Galatia:
3Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ,
4who gave himself for our sins to rescue us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, 5to whom be glory for ever and ever.

Amen.

6I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you by the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel--

7which is really no gospel at all.

Evidently some people are throwing you into confusion and are trying to pervert the gospel of Christ.

8But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let him be eternally condemned!

9As we have already said, so now I say again: If anybody is preaching to you a gospel other than what you accepted, let him be eternally condemned!

10Am I now trying to win the approval of men, or of God? Or am I trying to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a servant of Christ.

11I want you to know, brothers, that the gospel I preached is not something that man made up.

12I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it; rather, I received it by revelation from Jesus Christ.

13For you have heard of my previous way of life in Judaism, how intensely I persecuted the church of God and tried to destroy it.

14I was advancing in Judaism beyond many Jews of my own age and was extremely zealous for the traditions of my fathers.

15But when God, who set me apart from birth and called me by his grace, was pleased

16to reveal his Son in me so that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not consult any man, 17nor did I go up to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles before I was, but I went immediately into Arabia and later returned to Damascus.

18Then after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to get acquainted with Peter and stayed with him fifteen days.

19I saw none of the other apostles--only

James, the Lord's brother.

20I assure you before God that what I am writing you is no lie.

He is writing here pointing at Simon the Sorcerer who corrupted the developing Western Church in Rome, adding doctrine to it. The Church had grown so that there was a need for a new or second centralized location. It was impossible to move contribution money and messages between Europe and Jerusalem regularly. A church was developed in Rome – The Eastern Church.

Simon got involved in leadership and promoted his long standing belief in The Babylonian Mystery Religion. He wanted power and “big money.” They developed their own councils, “church fathers,” Popes, Bishops, various other prelates and a host of edicts and doctrine that is their own religion and their own gospel and is not the true gospel as was intended, given by God, through Jesus the Christ to be spoken to all the people of Judea and then to the people beyond the borders of Judea.

It wasn't all bad. Out of this came the accepted 66-books of The Holy Bible.

The Catholic Church has had a magnificent civilizing influence upon societies all over the world. The school students where I am presently perched in The Philippines, and all over Asia, wear uniforms. The schools teach students to maintain a strict time schedule, use time wisely, and work diligently.

The students learn study discipline, good manners, and to treat one another as gentlemen and ladies. It's all good in my view. But we can see the Roman Catholic Church had a profound impact on early Christendom and during the “Crusade” years anyone who did not openly accept Catholic doctrine was ostracized or put to death. Entire villages were put to the sword. All of today's Great Britain was from before 1558 to at least 1623 at war over Christian doctrine. One war ran 100 years! Actually Christianity appeared in England before the start of year 500, but at the date November 27, 1095: Pope Urban II began to stir serious trouble all across England and Europe.

In verses 6 and 7 as you see in Galatians first chapter above, we see that the Galatians had quickly exchanged what Apostle Paul taught them for another gospel. Jesus spoke of His message—the Kingdom of God—as the “word”/message that He delivered/spoke. The apostles, as you’ll read all through the book of Acts, went everywhere preaching “the word”—meaning the Kingdom of God.

The Realization that comes with Comprehension.

A full and complete understanding of the message sent by God to all humankind, brought through His divine Messenger Jesus the Christ, involves a vast comprehension of God’s great purpose, and of events prehistoric, historic, present and future. It actually, in your vast future, will take you to understand what today is called “theoretical physics.” You will understand how the universe was created and the “why” about all things that make up the physical universe. You’ll understand the mathematics and the reasons for the precise forces, densities, sizes, temperatures and so forth. Actually, God’s language is numbers! For all of us who could never be “Math Major’s” at a major university, that’s a handicap which will be corrected in due course.

I’m talking here beyond “string theory” to a complete understanding of everything! An elegance that draws everything in the universe together and makes perfect sense. A Unification Theory that ultimately must (I think) lead to the realization that God is One and We and the Universe are all One. There may be much more truth to the Buddhist view "Make me one with everything" than we realize.

Once understood, the libraries of knowledge disseminated in the great universities, will pale to insignificance. Great minds of Theoretical Physicists will seem stupid beside those who have received God’s new awareness and wisdom. The promises of super capability made to some of us mind-expansion seekers by the devil and his co-workers will be desolate beside God’s generous awareness imparted into our, at last, completed minds.

The missing dimension in knowledge is the all-important knowledge! My good reader friend, expect great things to be revealed in the further studies at this website. As I said, the time to reveal is come and you shall be one of the few who will open your mind to receive it – NOT from me, not because I am so grand and generous. It will come as what I write, that which is given to me to write and it will be available to you at no cost. But – there’s a forewarning here. Often people who are presented readings at no charge do not value them and do not read them. Don't you be also amongst those fools.

Read and learn. God gives you opportunity as in the parable we just went over. As I told you earlier, God is infinite and knew your mind and your destiny before your birth. He knew of this moment for you and now You are required to make a decision and follow your path. Do you choose the easy path to the gates of Hades and eternal condemnation, or the uphill more difficult path to the Gates of Heaven and eternal life and happiness? Make your choice. Decide whom you will serve. As the master suffered, for his followers, so also must we share in his suffering. The "gift of eternal life" comes with the requirement that we prove we really want it, that we're willing to sell all we have to buy that "pearl" of great value.

The 'Gospels' Being Preached Today

Mr. Armstrong warned years ago, you may hear many gospel programs. They say they are, "Preaching Christ to the Nations." One might ask, "Well, what's wrong about preaching about Christ?" Or, "What's wrong about preaching a gospel of grace?" Or, "What's wrong about proclaiming a message about salvation?"

I have shown you the scriptures showing they started, even in the first century, preaching about a different Jesus—a Jesus supposed to have abolished His Father's commandments—who turned "grace" into license to disobey (2 Corinthians 11:4, 13-15 and Jude 4).

They do not today preach the real Jesus, who said, "I have kept my Father's commandments," setting for us an example that we should keep them also.

Here we are again. I insist you cannot get by with a 15-second prayer and nothing more. You must make every effort to follow God's Way. It's not easy.

No one purifies his thoughts overnight, but we keep working at it all of our lives, and praying for forgiveness and to continue on the path, and the results are a continually developing better person.

If those who claim to preach a gospel of salvation understood and proclaimed what salvation really is—whether it is going to a place, being changed into a different condition, or what—or where—and how it may be obtained, it might be a part of the true gospel. But today's "gospel" programs do not teach what salvation really is or how one may receive it.

When the blind lead the blind, they all fall into the ditch. These days a lot of wise men are not teaching the gospel. Instead they are entertaining on television broadcasts. They set up a news-discussion table format on a stage and invite in an audience. It all looks like a news broadcast but it's about prophecy and some author's book about his future prognostications related to what he interprets prophecy means.

They discuss prophecy and politics and rumors of wars, and environmental disasters and signs of the end times and signs of the constellations, the moon and sun movements, and it's all very entertaining and sells books and video DVD's – but they don't teach the message Jesus spoke. That is what's missing and it is truly tragic!

The Last Commandments Jesus gave was to continue to teach and preach his message. Who does? Too few!

Modern pastors give you introductory information. They get you started thinking. They cannot teach hard, even emotionally painful truths to a megachurch of several hundred, even several thousand people. And they're probably right because many of those people really come for social contact, not to hear the painful truth. Hear it they must, and hear it they will, if not now in this life then later in the next!

I recommend you should continue to attend church, and take the pastor's introductory messages as an invitation to do more study and do your own thinking. No man can think for you. No man can save you for eternity. Only God can do that. The more you read, think and pray the more is revealed to you by the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus called him "The Helper." He is there to help you. YOU have to be willing to study and then he'll help! You must determine whether you want to be really serious about this branch of your life, or if you'll just take your chances, flow with the river, and hope God saves you. He might but you'll be in a lower echelon of wisdom and comfort and will have more time ahead before you have risen to the capabilities He has intended for you.

There are and will be more of those working for demons. There will be some true demons disguised as fine gentlemen and ladies talking about fantasies, explaining that they are angels come to rescue us. Jesus sternly warned us to avoid such people.

There's a man who says he died, saw Hell and came back to tell you about it. He and his wife are attractive, fit, well dressed and well-spoken teachers, but I'm afraid they are deceived. Maybe they make big money selling deceptive books too. Be careful about these entertainers. Enjoy the entertainment but come back to reality. Teach the truth of Jesus and the Kingdom He will govern and our place in it – or out of it!!

Such a story as was put into that man's mind as vivid dreams, is actually intended to make you wonder why God would allow such an eternal torture. This speaker saw a vision and experienced being in Hell, he says.

If you see fault in The Only Perfect God you have stepped onto the rollercoaster ride to Hell! I think The Infinite would gain no pleasure from this eternal conflict of morality and I tend to believe the ancient rabbinical sages who say there is a punishment and then a chance to be retrained. OR, for some there will be no chance. The punishment will end in being "burned up," turned to ashes, and gone forevermore, or as I've said, just deleted from the dream.

There will be demons disguised as angels of light. The rock-n-roll industry is constantly recruiting beautiful young people, a few with a good music education, and turning them into puppets to preach the Deceptions of Satan.

I was watching the X-Factor TV show Online. This young music talent, 16 Year Old Ellona Santigao @ The X Factor USA 2013 Auditions - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XVoUzCRooNs>

Getting started in the business, age 16, appeared shy before the judges in introduction and then in 5 inch high heels, she breaks into song and is seen strutting up and down the stage singing like she went from age 16 to age 22 in a second.

She sings like a "diva," walks like she went to modeling school. Who is teaching this and why? For fame, adulation and Money! Money, Money! The world thinks God is a myth and they all want a 50-room palace. They do not believe Jesus. They believe they'll die and that's the end. They believe God is a myth. They believe they should get all the pleasure and fame from life they can and then die with a box of money in their coffin. They don't realize they are playing into Satan's hands.

Just What Is the Kingdom of God?

So it's time we come to understand. Let's define. How could we define this Kingdom of God? What is the Kingdom of God? What is a kingdom? The Bible speaks of several kingdoms.

The first world empire—the Chaldean Empire often called “Babylon”—was a kingdom. God inspired the Prophet Daniel to say to its king, Nebuchadnezzar, “... the God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory” (Daniel 2:37).

Then there was the kingdom of Israel—the family descended from Israel, which became one of Earth's nations or governments.

The kingdom of Israel was a forerunner of the Kingdom of God. It will be composed of the Spirit-born children of God—the Family of God, organized into a governing kingdom.

Therefore the Kingdom of God will be dual both a King led government and a Family!

(1) A government. A government—or kingdom—is composed of four parts:

(a) a king, ruling over

(b) people, subjects or citizens within

(c) a definite jurisdiction of territory, with

(d) laws and an organized system of administering them.

(2) A family (as the kingdom of Israel was a family of the children of Israel)— in this case the Family of God; a family into which humans may be born, which shall be a governing, or ruling, family that shall have jurisdiction over all nations—that is, the whole Earth—and, later, the entire universe.

The Kingdom is a Government

Christ is to be the King of the Kingdom of God. He is the Son of God, whom He addressed as His Father. When the Church, by a resurrection or instantaneous change from mortal to immortal (from physical to spirit composition), becomes the Spirit-composed children of God, Christ will marry the Church, which shall become His wife. So we have Father, Son, wife, and children of the Father—all a family relationship—the divine God Family!

Let's read some of the prophecies:

“Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel [which means ‘God with us’]” (Isaiah 7:14).

“For unto us [Israel] a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even forever.

The zeal of the [Eternal] of hosts will perform this” (Isaiah 9:6-7).

The angel Gabriel is a super archangel—a cherub—one of only three mentioned in the Bible. It is recorded, “And in the sixth month [of the pregnancy of Elizabeth] the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, To a virgin espoused [betrothed] to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin’s name was Mary.

And the angel came to her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favored, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. ... And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favor with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end” (Luke 1:26-33).

When Jesus was on trial for His life before Pilate, the Roman ruler said unto Him, “So, you are a king, then?” Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth” (John 18:37).

I want you to know, Pilot was known to be a past army officer, one of the most callus, rough, ill mannered, arrogant, multiple murders the world had ever known. Forget the nonsense in movies. Pilot was as nasty a psychological disaster case as men can be. Even he, horrible as he was, did not want to kill Jesus! He asked, “What have you done?” He stated, “I see no justification to crucify this man.” But he allowed it (against his wife’s advice) because he wanted to keep the peace and his position which he hoped would lead to becoming Emperor. {Pilote allowed it because The Lord God required it!}

However, Jesus also explained to Pilate that His Kingdom—His rulership—was not of this world—this time—this present age, saying, In the NIV translation Jesus said, "My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jews. But now my kingdom is from another place."

Here we are again with this translation that always has to point a finger and say, "The Jews had his arrested." Islam had not begun. There were no Buddhists, Jainists or Taoists around. The Arabs and other tribes worshipped various odd gods but the only people around Jerusalem were Jews! Why bring that up? I think they brought it up because someone altered the manuscripts.

37" You are a king, then!" said Pilate. Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me."

I can just picture Pilot raising his hands and answering, What is truth? And striding out of the room.

What Christ’s Gospel Was All About

I had a patient that told me; "Last week Pastor Larry said the purpose of Jesus was to die for our sins, and nothing else." Is that right? Is that the gospel? Did Jesus teach and preach and reason with those who tried to trap him only because he was wasting time waiting for the day he would die a terrible death for our sins?

You see me repeating myself several times about this issue of definition, because the word “of” as in “Gospel of Jesus Christ” is a completely misunderstood term. The world thinks it is the legend of Jesus Christ. No. That’s all wrong. God does not emphasize the life, suffering and death of Jesus. It was magnificent, but it is not the singular most important focus. The Focus is on the coming Kingdom of God and your opportunity to be part of it.

I say, as Armstrong wrote, that Christ's gospel—the message He brought from God—was the advanced good news of the establishment of God's Kingdom and how you will fit into it, and what will become of you.

What does that include? And why is the Kingdom of God necessary? How does it affect and relate directly to your personal and individual life? Actually, Christ's message of God's coming Kingdom is directly concerned with world conditions as they are—with human nature—its source and origin—with world evils, suffering, unhappiness—with world peace. It's concerned with government—with the reason present human governments fail to be the benefactors of their peoples as they are expected to be.

King David was a model of a king who brought benefit to his people. King Solomon in his early years also brought great benefit to his people. Jesus' message hits directly at the very roots of individual personal happiness and at the awesome transcendent potential of each human life. It is concerned with the causes of present conditions that affect every human and with the way that will solve all problems.

But it is concerned with far more. It is concerned with God's tremendous, overwhelming, overall purpose as Creator of the entire universe. It is concerned with the entire vast universe, filled with its uncountable galaxies, nebulae, suns, stars, planets, and with God's purpose for them. It's concerned with all the angels— and that one third of all God's created angels turned to sin from which there can be no redemption, and God's great purpose and plan to prevent such a catastrophe happening to the other two thirds.

Most of these things are never remotely considered in religious teachings. You'll be hard pressed to find a preacher talking about this message and what it implies, what it leads to for YOUR life! God's message is concerned with overall truth.

What you have learned thus far is but the basic foundation of the entire story of Christ's gospel message. There shall be much more. I actually have so much material there will be several small articles and perhaps booklets talking about The True Gospel. You don't need to read them all. You have heard the true gospel from me in these pages, starting on pages 3 and 4. As you see, I don't make you read a hundred pages to get the message. The Apostles got down to business quickly too. If you want more illumination and want to be able to argue for this truth as The Apostles did, the articles about the true gospel will be the best help you'll get!

How dare I make such a claim? I do because almost no one else is teaching it. I feel drawn to do all of this writing work, and learning to build a modern website and much more. I've been regularly working 12-hour days for nearly 3-years as of today, and no one pays me to do this. I believe God wants me to do it!

Okay, WHY does God want me to do it?

It may seem I'm off on another tangent here, but I think with very good justification. We're just near the end of my major statement here so please read with me the next three pages until you reach the end notes. This really is the big reason YOU are here reading this, so don't lose out on the big reward God has for you.

Herbert W. Armstrong taught the true gospel, and much of what you're reading now was inspired by his book. His writing style was very much from the 1900's when he was first educated, and not following today's thinking dynamics. As I said, he sounded to me like a circus barker, an excited advertising announcer on old TV commercials.

"You get these super diamond blade knives, so sharp they cut through rotten tomato skins and make slices as thin as paper. Not one knife but three for the price of one. BUT WAIT there's MORRRE!!"

I think readers will not tolerate that these days. They want a teacher to get to the point.

A few of Mr. Armstrong's followers who kept to his doctrine tend to write and speak as he did, and much as I appreciate that they are good men with a good purpose, they seem like mimics of the dead Herbert and have not found themselves yet. They're not much good to the massive younger audience that is lost between lack of Christian thought and a school system run by Satan in which some teachers openly admit they are intending to alter society and turn the US into a Marxist/Communist, God-less state.

If they're allowed to continue the result will be a country of impoverished people living with a collapsed infrastructure.

You probably don't know that Japan, Singapore, even Malaysia are technologically way ahead of the US and their building architecture and city planning is enough to leave you in shock! The US government doesn't want to admit their years of government since 1945 have been a failure, allowing the Federal Reserve (which is a cabul of foreign bankers) to suck the economic life out of the nation!

The more we export our pornography and our "Planned Parenthood" (which is really profligate mass heartless murder) the more God withdraws from the US and allows her enemies to cause her trouble. The final prophecies say the US will be cut off from world trade and become an economic ruin and finally will be overrun by her enemies.

Some ask where to find the US in prophecy. It's there, but they don't know how to find it. Herbert Armstrong found it and proved it! Access books from "TheTrumpet.com" starting with The United States and Britain In Prophecy" and you'll learn what everyone else is missing.

We don't need more Armstrong mimics shouting into a microphone. We need people who really understand this information and have the courage to teach it, talk about it, produce video lectures about it, gather friends in small groups to tell it and talk about it. That's the point of most of my shorter articles. I think my little articles will help you teach in 20 minutes what needs to be heard and then get on with answering questions and asking people to make a decision to accept Jesus the Christ as their savior. If you want to run a worship group from your home, give it a year of trial and see what comes of it.

My materials cost you nothing. Please use them. This stuff doesn't write itself. I'm spending hundreds of hours working on this. Please don't let it to go waste.

My Dear Friend, I hope you have noticed that I go out of my way to make extra effort to bring you the Bible quotes and define words so you will not be confused and lose interest. I continue to refer to the chapter and verse numbers so you will not be confused. In a massage for back-pain book I produced, I did the same sort of thing, showing many illustrations and explaining carefully.

That course is also going to be revised and released again with videos for demonstrations.

This isn't "Christianity Light." I'm not building a church around motivational messages. I'm not running or leading a church and have no intention of doing so. I'm close to age 70 and have no interest in launching a church (as if there aren't enough already!)

Please continue to study and watch for more new postings, and please help God's Holy Spirit to save lives and souls for eternity! Recommend to your friends to come and read here too.

Look for them in the website "Library" at an "Articles" link. It leads you to all sorts of valuable information.

REMINDER:

People read and go right past 1 John 3:2 Nothing happens in their mind.

1 John 3:2 New International Version \(NIV\) John is writing:

Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when Christ appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

This is the beginning of the truth. It's not a story about a baby born in a manger and it's not a story about a man who became a legend. It's the news that God will forgive us our sins if we request rescue from this muddy mess and what he has for us then is to raise us as his own children, and we will mature to be like Him! And more, we will help to restore the Universe to what it was before Satan ruined it.....and less than 1% of the world knows any of this!!!

This implies that one day YOU could have much of the wisdom, understanding and creative capability that God has. If this is what HE wants – children who are like Him, He shall have them and apparently He is inviting YOU. So think this through carefully.

Would you want your children to remain immature with the mind of a 2-year-old for life? Of course not! So why should God want that?

God is saying He intends to make little immature children grow up to be mature and capable -- somewhat similar to Himself. Exactly what that entails I do not know but it sounds better than most of the condition of humanity I've seen through most of my lifetime!

Now it's YOUR turn to digest this, think about it and finally go teach it before the end of all opportunities to teach is foisted upon us. I'm guessing you wanted a way to show God you will use the investment He made in you. I think you understand now that you should prove that you have been responsible with what He gave you. If you are using these gifts wisely you will be better rewarded in the future.

Spread the word. You can do this at no personal expense. You don't need to stand before crowds to speak. You have a computer of some sort, hand held or PC, and you have social media contacts. That's all you need. Tell friends to visit www.HeavensWay2022.org and the true gospel message offer will remain on top of that "Home/Cover" page forever."

Your effort to get this offer of the truth that sets people free into the computers owned by everyone will surely be noted in the books of life about You. The Bible tells us when we die we go before God "and books are opened." Including the Book of Life, and The Lamb's Book of Life and more about you and your life, and what good you did with it. What did you do for Heaven's Sake? What did you do to help God further the developing of His restored New world?

One day the evil forces will (as they have in India and China and some Muslim countries) censure, block, stop this message from being available on the Internet, or they'll find a way to take it off the search engines. They'll kill it somehow. I fear that day is coming too soon! We're running out of time!

Only YOU can preserve it and pass it on. Do you have the courage to do that much? Sit at your favorite safe spot and send messages about this website to social media acquaintances. Most won't do anything, but if 2% do you will have made an important impact. Each person has to feel the Holy Spirit pull him/her into learning the truth. Some never will want it and many will and why some are called and why some are chosen is God's business.

God will Bless you in this life and for eternity for spreading HIS truth.

Sincere Best Regards,

StepheN www.HeavensWay2022.org

Notes About Simon the sorcerer:

SIMON MAGUS

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

For the film, see Simon Magus (film). Part of a series on Gnosticism

Simon the Sorcerer, or Simon the Magician (Latin: Simon Magus, Greek Σίμων ὁ μάγος), is a religious figure whose confrontation with Peter is recorded in Acts 8:9–24. The act of simony, or paying for position and influence in the church, is named after Simon.

According to Acts, Simon was a Samaritan magus or religious figure of the 1st century AD and a convert to Christianity, baptised by Philip the Evangelist. Simon later clashed with Peter. The Apostolic Constitutions also accuses him of "lawlessness" (antinomianism).[1] According to Recognitions, Simon's parents were named Antonius and Rachel.[2]

Accounts of Simon by writers of the second century exist, but are not considered verifiable.[3][4] Surviving traditions about

Simon appear in orthodox texts, such as those of Irenaeus, Justin Martyr, Hippolytus, and Epiphanius, where he is often regarded as the source of all heresies.[5][6][7][8] Justin, who was himself a 2nd-century native of Samaria, wrote that nearly all the Samaritans in his time were adherents of a certain Simon of Gitta, a village not far from Flavia Neapolis. According to Josephus, Gitta (also spelled Getta)[9] was settled by the tribe of Dan.[10][11] Irenaeus held him as being one of the founders of Gnosticism and the sect of the Simonians.[12][13][14][15] Hippolytus quotes from a work he attributes to Simon or his followers the Simonians, Apophasis Megale, or Great Declaration. According to the early church heresiologists, Simon is also supposed to have written several lost treatises, two of which bear the titles The Four Quarters of the World and The Sermons of the Refuter. Simon was later crucified, possibly even flayed. From:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Simon_Magus

And Saul approved of their killing Stephen.

THE CHURCH PERSECUTED AND SCATTERED

On that day a great persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout Judea and Samaria. 2 Godly men buried Stephen and mourned deeply for him. 3 But Saul began to destroy the church. Going from house to house, he dragged off both men and women and put them in prison.

PHILIP IN SAMARIA

4 Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. 5 Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah there. 6 When the crowds heard Philip and saw the signs he performed, they all paid close attention to what he said. 7 For with shrieks, impure spirits came out of many, and many who were paralyzed or lame were healed. 8 so there was great joy in that city.

SIMON THE SORCERER

9 Now for some time a man named Simon had practiced sorcery in the city and amazed all the people of Samaria. He boasted that he was someone great, 10 and all the people, both high and low, gave him their attention and exclaimed, “This man is rightly called the Great Power of God.” 11 They followed him because he had amazed them for a long time with his sorcery. 12 But when they believed Philip as he proclaimed the good news of the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. 13 Simon himself believed and was baptized. And he followed Philip everywhere, astonished by the great signs and miracles he saw. 14 When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to Samaria. 15 When they arrived, they prayed for the new believers there that they might receive the Holy Spirit, 16 because the Holy Spirit had not yet come on any of them; they had simply been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then Peter and John placed their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

18 When Simon saw that the Spirit was given at the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money 19 and said, "Give me also this ability so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

20 Peter answered: "May your money perish with you, because you thought you could buy the gift of God with money! 21 You have no part or share in this ministry, because your heart is not right before God. 22 Repent of this wickedness and pray to the Lord in the hope that he may forgive you for having such a thought in your heart. 23 For I see that you are full of bitterness and captive to sin." 24 Then Simon answered, "Pray to the Lord for me so that nothing you have said may happen to me." 25 After they had further proclaimed the word of the Lord and testified about Jesus, Peter and John returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many Samaritan villages.

SN: Clearly, Peter the Apostle is with Jesus and John. Simon, also known as Simon the magician or sorcerer.

Peter's statement that Simon was to become a "gall of bitterness." People today may not realize the exact meaning of such a phrase, but no Jew in the First Century was in any doubt as to its meaning.

It was a figure of speech adopted from the Old Testament which denoted going over to the idols and abominations of the heathen. Read Deuteronomy 29:16-18 and see how plainly this figure of speech is used. When the Apostle Peter applied to Simon Magus the phrase "gall of bitterness," he meant that Simon would be the responsible party for the introduction of heathen beliefs and idols into Christianity. The prophecy takes on a new and important scope when we realize this real meaning of Peter's prophecy.

<http://www.reformation.org/simon-peter-simon-magus.html> This interesting article documents that any discussion about Apostle Peter or "Simon Peter" or "Simon Pater" is fiction. It is easy to punch holes in that argument.

For final reference here is SOME of the material from Wikipedia. These accounts are from historians of the day and are likely our best source of information. It was Simon who was "the first Pope" and not Peter the Apostle. Of course I know this revelation won't make me popular with everyone, but the truth must win out. It brings a curse upon me if I should promulgate a lie.

JOSEPHUS

Josephus mentions a magician named Atomus (Simon in Latin manuscripts)[18] as being involved with the procurator Felix, King Agrippa II and his sister Drusilla, where Felix has Simon convince Drusilla to marry him instead of the man she was engaged to. Some scholars have considered the two to be identical,[19]although this is not generally accepted, as the Simon of Josephus is a Jew rather than a Samaritan.[citation needed]

JUSTIN MARTYR AND IRENAEUS[EDIT]

Justin Martyr (in his Apologies, and in a lost work against heresies, which Irenaeus used as his main source) and Irenaeus (Adversus Haereses) record that after being cast out by the Apostles, Simon Magus came to Rome where, having joined to himself a profligate woman of the name of Helen, he gave out that it was he who appeared among the Jews as the Son, in Samaria as the Father and among other nations as the Holy Spirit. He performed such signs by magic acts during the reign of Claudius that he was regarded as a god and honored with a statue on the island in the Tiber which the two bridges cross, with the inscription Simoni Deo Sancto, "To Simon the Holy God"

(Apologia, XXVI).

HIPPOLYTUS

In Philosophumena Hippolytus provides an extensive quotation of the document called Apophasis Megale or Great Revelation which the author believed to be written by Simon himself. Apart from that he retells the narrative on Simon written by Irenaeus (who in his turn based it on the lost Syntagma of Justin).

Upon the story of "the lost sheep," Hippolytus (in his Philosophumena) comments as follows.

But the liar was enamoured of this wench, whose name was Helen, and had bought her and had her to wife, and it was out of respect for his disciples that he invented this fairy-tale.[22]

(SN: It might be that the rumor that Jesus was married to Mary Magdalene and raised a child with her came from this story.)

I warn you, you'll get into A MASS of esoteric balderdash that really seems a waste of your time. There are many who have written much material over the past few years. We hardly know anything about them or their scholarship. We can rest assure, St. Peter did not go to Rome to begin what is today's Roman Catholic Church. Jesus did not marry. Simon the Sorcerer was never truly named Peter or Pater. Apostle Paul was not Peter. There was a different use for the word "Peter" referring to minor gods from the ancient Sumerian traditions.

You can find more if you can to search the Internet. For me to give all of it to you would actually more than double the size of this book.

You must remember the study of The Christ and the churches has been going on with tens of thousands of men of various caliber of scholarship for the past 2020 years and there has been much more written about The Old Testament for another 3,000 years before then, and there are modern archeologists who insist there are stories of Aliens, very long lived kings and lost civilizations on this planet going back AT LEAST 100,000 years, and some will argue Millions of Years. There is no end to the reading and confusion. I recommend you avoid going deeply into it.

You can find much more at Wikipedia about Simon, Gnostic teachings, and his many other crimes. I think we have enough here to establish that Simon began the "Western" or "Roman" church and that Apostle Peter was never in Rome.

If you want to see MORE about the first evidence of the appearance of civilized life on Earth (Demons probably) you can search google – but at some point in time you have to stop and decide you have seen enough! For me, The True Gospel is quite enough. Jesus the Christ is the All in All, He has proven himself and I am not going to wander off chasing lessor gods.
